NOTES:- The above programme is drawn up on the assumption that it remains the desire of delegations to confine plenary meetings of the Preparatory Committee for Charter discussions to the afternoons leaving mornings free for tariff negotiations. If delegations feel that more time is required for the discussion by the Preparatory Committee of sub-committee reports, it will be necessary to schedule morning or evening meetings for this purpose.

No provision has been made in the schedule for further meetings of the Tariff Agreement Committee. If the above programme is adopted, it will be necessary either to arrange to concentrate the work of the Tariff Agreement Committee in the week following the termination of the Charter discussions or to arrange for the Committee to meet in the mornings which, for the reasons set out above, have been left free from Charter discussions.
