CONTRACTING PARTIES
Third Session

CORRIGENDUM TO THE SUMMARY RECORD OF THE TWENTY-SEVENTH MEETING

Mr. KING's (China) Statement:

Page 3, the last sentence should read:

"The false supposition was that the contracting party whose measures were in question and which was therefore most directly affected might not be invited to partake in the work of the ad hoc Committee, which in his opinion was inconceivable."

Page 4, the last sentence of the first paragraph should read:

"On the outstanding question of who was to decide upon the urgency and exceptionality of each case, Mr. KING would be agreeable to either suggestion but would like to see this task entrusted jointly to the Chairman and the party whose measures were in question. He, too, supported the proposal that the whole of paragraph 14 and the proposed amendments referred to Working Party 3 for further study, the composition of which, he added, required no change."
