Third Session

CORRIGENDUM TO THE SUMMARY RECORD
OF THE THIRTY-EIGHTH MEETING

Mr. WUNSZ KING (China) thought it was important to avoid getting lost in the legal issues. The first point in the last Cuban proposal should not be insisted upon, but he thought the second and third points provided matter for direct discussion between Cuba and the United States in the light of Article XXIII. He therefore suggested that the United States and Cuban delegations should, in consultation with the Chairman, discuss and work out a formula acceptable to both parties, in anticipation of the bilateral talks under Article XXIII, paragraph 1.
