The twelfth and thirteenth lines of Mr. JHA's (India) statement should read:

"seemed no reason why a bolder attack should not be made on discrimination within the soft currency area. Much progress had been made since the bilateral balancing ..."

In the eighteenth line of the same statement the word "powers" should read "needs".

The fourth sentence from the end of the same statement should read:

"There could thus be a problem of discrimination in both directions by or against sterling countries".

The last two lines of the first paragraph of Mr. Jha's statement should read:

"that every breach of the terms and objectives of the Agreement should be investigated".
