In the statement by Mr. Nyerges, the last sentence should be amended to read as follows:

"He recalled in that connexion that well before the market crisis his country had proposed to the EEC a system of shared responsibility in the cattle trade, but so far had not received a response."

In the second part of the statement by Mr. Nyerges, insert at the end of the last sentence:

"... and in accordance with their signed obligations to implement international agreements in good faith."
