CONTRACTING PARTIES

SCHEDULE IX - CUBA

Report on renegotiations with the United States

The Governments of Cuba and the United States of America have reported the conclusion on 31 May 1950 of the renegotiations which they agreed to undertake at the Second Session of the Contracting Parties (GATT/CP.2/SR.25). The renegotiation involved the following items in Part II of Schedule IX:

Trimmings, ribbons and galloons (127A and 142 E and F);
Hollow tyres and inner tubes (314 B and C); and Nylon stockings (ex 137 F).

The Government of the United States undertook to renegotiate these items - and also coloured woven textiles, if the Government of Cuba so desired - in return for adequate compensation (GATT/CP.2/43).

The results of the renegotiations on the tariff items mentioned above are attached hereto, but the renegotiation of coloured woven textiles has been deferred. The two Governments have submitted three lists showing the proposed changes in the Cuban Tariff, namely Appendices A, B and C.

Appendix A. (Proposed increases in rates of duty at the request of of Cuba).

This gives the results of the renegotiation of the six items mentioned above. Several new sub-items have been established. Increases in rates of duty have been agreed upon for some of the products listed under each of the six tariff items; under three of these items the present rates have been retained for some products; and under one item a duty reduction for some products has been agreed upon.

Appendix B. (Proposed reductions in rates of duty as compensation for the United States)

This is a list of duty reductions on items in the Cuban tariff to which the Cuban Government has agreed by way of compensation. Most of these items already appear in Part II of Schedule IX. Several new sub-items in the Cuban tariff have been established.

Appendix C. (Statement of the changes proposed in Schedule IX)

This includes the results of the renegotiations and the duty reductions proposed as compensation. It is intended that all these changes will be put into effect as a unit, and will be applied as if they had been inserted in their appropriate numerical order in Schedule IX. In addition to the negotiated changes in Part II of Schedule IX, this list shows the changes to be made in Part I as a result of the negotiations.

In addition, the Government of Cuba has submitted a full list of the proposed changes, negotiated and consequential, in the Cuban tariff. This list is also attached hereto. It shows the insertion of new sub-items, changes in the description of products and changes in rates of duty in the m-f-n and preferential tariffs. It contains items of the Cuban customs tariff which were negotiated and on which an agreement was reached by the two governments with respect to the duties applicable to products of the United States imported into Cuba; it contains also the duties which will be applied to products imported from other contracting parties, whether or not these duties appear in Part I of Schedule IX.

The Government of Cuba has advised by letter received on 22 June that the proposed changes in Schedule IX have been put into force as from 9 June 1950 in accordance with the provisions of Article XIX (GATT/CP/71/Add.1) pending approval by the Contracting Parties. A further communication concerning the procedure for obtaining the approval of Contracting Parties for the changes in Schedule IX will be issued at an early date.
