COMMUNICATION FROM IRAN

The following communication, dated 14 November 1974, has been addressed by the Permanent Mission of Iran to the Committee of Participating Countries provided for in the Protocol relating to Trade Negotiations among Developing Countries.

The Permanent Mission of Iran to the United Nations Office and the Specialized Agencies at Geneva presents its compliments to the Committee of Participating Countries provided for in the Protocol relating to Trade Negotiations among Developing Countries and has the honour to advise of the Iranian Government's desire to explore possibilities and means for acceding to the above-mentioned Protocol.

The competent Iranian authorities are currently preparing a list of products of export interest to Iran. This list will be submitted to the participating countries so that possibilities may be examined for an exchange of tariff concessions in accordance with the procedure established in document CPC/S/1.¹

¹The procedures for accession, and in particular the procedures for exploring possibilities for exchanging tariff concessions, are set forth in document CPC/S/1.
