COMMUNICATION FROM THE DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

The following communication has been received from the Permanent Mission of the Dominican Republic in Geneva.

I have the honour to advise you, in accordance with the instructions received by this Mission, that the Government of my country is interested in examining the possibility of acceding to the Protocol Relating to Trade Negotiations Among Developing Countries, in accordance with the procedure established by the Committee of Participating Countries.

My national authorities are currently studying the schedule of concessions annexed to the Protocol, and likewise other products of export interest. In due course we shall communicate to you the results of this examination.
