APPLICATION OF ARTICLE XXXV TO JAPAN

Statement by the Representative of Japan at Council Meeting on 23 February 1961

Corrigendum

The last paragraph on page 1 of the English version of document C/8 should be amended to read as follows:

"More specifically, as already indicated by the representative of Japan at the seventeenth session in his statement (L/1391), the working party to be established might consider the following points:

1. Is the operation of the General Agreement being impeded?
2. Is the attainment of the basic objectives of the General Agreement being impaired?
3. Cause or reason for the invocation of Article XXXV by different countries;
4. Possibility of obtaining good offices in negotiation with certain countries with a view to having this Article disinvoked or not to be invoked;
5. Other pertinent matters."
