At the request of the representative of Brazil the third paragraph should be amended to read:

The representative of Brazil stated that the position of his delegation as regards discriminatory agreements was well-known. Therefore he could only endorse the conclusions of the working Party. Nevertheless, he expressed his regret that other working parties which in the past had examined other agreements entered into by some of the more developed countries, had not adopted the same firm stand against such agreements involving unjustified derogations of Article I. In view of this fact he would be prepared to join immediately in a general condemnation of all discriminatory agreements contrary to the spirit and the letter of the General Agreement, but his delegation was firmly against the adoption of a tough exemplary attitude only in the case of a commercially weaker country.
