LONG-TERM ARRANGEMENT REGARDING INTERNATIONAL TRADE
IN COTTON TEXTILES

Agreement Between the United States and India

Addendum

Attached is the text of the notes exchanged between the Governments of the United States and India extending the bilateral agreement concerning trade in cotton textiles concluded between the two Governments.

This information has been transmitted to the secretariat by the United States mission for notification to the Cotton Textiles Committee.

Note No. 1

No. 370

New Delhi, 30 December 1966

Excellency:

I have the honour to refer to the Agreement on trade in cotton textiles effected by an exchange of notes in Washington on 15 April 1964, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the Agreement) and to the notes exchanged between our Governments on 21 October 1966 (hereinafter referred to as the Extension) extending to 31 December, the Agreement.

I have the honour to propose that the Extension be replaced as of the date of your reply to this note as follows. For the period from 1 October 1966 through 31 March 1967 trade in cotton textiles between our two countries shall continue to be regulated in accordance with the existing arrangements under the Agreement. With respect to paragraphs 1 and 2 of the Agreement the limits for this period shall be those specified in these paragraphs for 1 April 1966 to 30 September 1966.

If these proposals are acceptable to your Government, this note and your note accepting these proposals on behalf of the Government of India shall constitute an Agreement between our Governments.

Sincerely,

(signed)
Joseph N. Greene, Jr.
Minister

His Excellency K.B. Lall,
Secretary to the Government of India,
Ministry of Commerce,
New Delhi.

Note No. 2

New Delhi, 30 December 1966

Dear Mr. Minister,

I acknowledge the receipt of your note No. 370 dated 30 December 1966 addressed to Shri K.B. Lall, Secretary, Ministry of Commerce which reads as follows:

"I have the honour to refer to the Agreement on trade in cotton textiles effected by an exchange of notes in Washington on 15 April 1964, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the Agreement) and to the notes exchanged between our Governments on 21 October 1966 (hereinafter referred to as the Extension) extending to 31 December, the Agreement.

"I have the honour to propose that the Extension be replaced as of the date of your reply to this note as follows. For the period from 1 October 1966 through 31 March 1967 trade in cotton textiles between our two countries shall continue to be regulated in accordance with the existing arrangements under the Agreement. With respect to paragraphs 1 and 2 of the Agreement the limits for this period shall be those specified in these paragraphs for 1 April 1966 to 30 September 1966.

"If these proposals are acceptable to your Government, this note and your note accepting these proposals on behalf of the Government of India shall constitute an Agreement between our Governments."

I wish to confirm that the proposal set forth in the note quoted above is acceptable to the Government of India.

Yours sincerely,

(signed)

A.V. Venkateswaran

Joint Secretary to the Government of India

Mr. Joseph N. Greene, Jr.
