LONG-TERM ARRANGEMENT REGARDING INTERNATIONAL TRADE IN COTTON TEXTILES

Addendum

Accession by the Republic of Korea

The following communication has been received on 10 December 1964 by the Executive Secretary from the permanent representative of the Republic of Korea to international organizations in Geneva:

"I wish to extend to you gratitude for your kind arrangements in regard to the acceptance by the Cotton Textiles Committee, of the accession of the Republic of Korea to the Long-Term Arrangement Regarding International Trade in Cotton Textiles.

"On behalf of my Government, I have the honour to inform you that the Korean Government accepts the obligations of the Long-Term Arrangement, including those stipulated in paragraph 2 of Article 11 of the Arrangement."

Consequently, in accordance with the procedure agreed by the Cotton Textiles Committee at its meeting from 30 November to 4 December 1964 the Republic of Korea has acceded to the Long-Term Arrangement; this accession being effective as of 10 December 1964. By virtue of this accession, the Republic of Korea has also become a member of the Cotton Textiles Committee.
