THE TERRITORIAL APPLICATION OF THE GENERAL AGREEMENT

A List of Territories to which the Agreement is applied

A list of the territories for which contracting parties have international responsibility and in respect of which the application of the Agreement has been made effective follows. It has not been considered necessary to list by name the states or provinces within the continental (and consequently main customs area) boundaries of countries, and hence the list contains only islands and outlying territories.

The present list has been prepared on the basis of comments and replies to the provisional list circulated as GATT/CP/108 on 16 April 1951. Territories to which the Agreement is not applied and those whose status is unknown are not included.
