TORQUAY PROTOCOL

The Secretary General of the United Nations has advised that the Torquay Protocol was signed on 24 September 1952¹ by the Government of Chile. Schedule VII - Chile, annexed to the Torquay Protocol, will, therefore, enter into force on 24 October 1952.

In virtue of paragraph 7(c) of the Torquay Protocol, the above signature constitutes an acceptance, effective on 24 September, of the following instruments which had hitherto not been signed or accepted by the Government of Chile:

Protocol modifying Article XXVI,
Protocol modifying Part I and Article XXIX²,
Protocol replacing Schedule VI (Ceylon)²,
First Protocol of Modifications²,
Fourth Protocol of Rectifications²,
Fifth Protocol of Rectifications,
First Protocol of Rectifications and Modifications.

¹ By a decision of the Contracting Parties of 15 July 1952 (Document L/12/Add.1) the time limit for signature of the Torquay Protocol by Chile was extended to 15 October 1952.

² As a consequence of Chile's signature of the Torquay Protocol, these Protocols entered into force on 24 September 1952.
