ANTI-DUMPING AND COUNTERVAILING DUTIES

Submission of Laws and Regulations

The following statements have been received from the Governments of the Federal Republic of Germany, Haiti and Indonesia:

FEDERAL REPUBLIC OF GERMANY

"... paragraph 17 of the Tariff Law of 16 August 1951 (Bundesgesetzbl. I., page 527) reads as follows:

'Anti-Dumping and Countervailing Duties

The Federal Government may, by way of administrative ordinance, levy in addition /to the normal customs duties/

- a. on any dumped product an anti-dumping duty not greater in amount than the margin of dumping in respect of such product;
- b. on any product on the manufacture, production or export of which, either directly or indirectly, a bounty or subsidy is granted, a countervailing duty not exceeding the estimated amount of such bounty or subsidy."

HAITI

"No provisions for the levy of anti-dumping and countervailing duties exist."

INDONESIA

"The Indonesian customs legislation and administrative regulations do not provide for the levy of anti-dumping and countervailing duties and other supplementary duties and charges for the protection of domestic production against the competition of low-priced imports."
