ANNEX B

Decree of the Government of the Republic of Indonesia
No 32/1960 Regulating "the Use of Rupiah Currency for Foreign Transactions" *

THE PRESIDENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA

- Considering : a. that to improve the position of our State's Finance in the field of international trade as well as in the domestic sector, necessary steps should be taken in respect of Rupiah currency for foreign transactions;
- b. that within the frame of efforts to speed up the overall development, it is also necessary to simplify one and another in the field of export and import;
- c. that due to urgent circumstances, this matter is regulated by this decree.
- Referring to : 1. Government Regulation No 42/1959 (O.G. 1959 No 92) regulating Export and Import Levies;
2. Government Regulation No 43/1959 (O.G. 1959 No 93) regulating the rate of Rupiah currency;
3. Article 22 paragraph 1, Article 23 paragraph 3 and 4 of the Constitution.
- Having heard : The First Minister, the Minister of Finance and the Minister of Commerce

HAS HEREBY DECIDED to enact a DECREE to regulate the use of the Rupiah currency for foreign transactions.

Article 1

This decree enulates the Government Regulation No 42/1959 (O.G. 1959 No 92) regulating Export and Import Levies.

Article 2

Pursuant to the provision of this decree, the rate of foreign currencies in respect of the Rupiah as determined in Government Regulation No 43/1959 (O.G. 1959 No 93) regulating the rate of Rupiah currency, here and after called Rupiah basic rate, shall be used for all foreign exchange transactions in the field of import and export, as well as for the services.

Article 3

The exports of commodities originating from the Indonesian custom area, are subject to export duties regulated by separate decree.

Article 4

1. Import commodities are divided into two groups:
 - a. commodities essential for the Indonesian economy
 - b. other commodities still required.
2. The commodities mentioned in sub-paragraph a. above, are determined by separate regulation.
As long as it is deemed necessary, the Minister of Finance together with the Minister of Commerce, will fix a price adjustment to be paid on imports of the commodities mentioned in sub-paragraph a. above.
3. With regard to the commodities mentioned in sub-paragraph b. above, the Government may impose restrictions by a separate regulation.
As far as commodities mentioned in sub-paragraph b. above are not subject to said restrictions, foreign exchange at a price fixed by the Bank of Indonesia with the aim to stabilize the value of the Rupiah currency shall be then used for such imports.

Article 5

Imports paid in foreign currencies, not registered as State foreign exchange assets may be carried out for commodities of which nature, kind and conditions of imports are determined by the Minister of Commerce together with the Minister of Finance.

Article 6

Levying of import duties, statistical duties, fees and import taxes (sales taxes) are determined by a separate decree.

Article 7

1. The sale of foreign exchange by a bank for certain types of services, as determined by the Minister of Finance, are taxable as stipulated by separate decree.
2. With a view to increasing the receipts of foreign exchange in the sector of services, the Minister of Finance may, for certain services, fix a special price for deliveries of foreign exchange.

Article 8

The Minister of Commerce together with the Minister of Finance, set up regulations in order to synchronize the barter trade prevailing in several regions with this decree.

Article 9

Transitional regulations and regulations for the execution of this decree will be set up by the Minister of Finance.

Article 10

This decree regulating the use of the Rupiah currency for foreign transactions, will come into force from 25 August, 1960 at 06.00 hours Java time.

In order that everybody may know, it is instructed to promulgate this decree regulating the use of the Rupiah currency for foreign transactions by inserting in the Official Gazette of the Republic of Indonesia.
