GENEVA (1967) PROTOCOL

Extension of Time-limit for Acceptances

Decision Adopted by the Council on 21 June

NOTING that the Governments of Brazil, Chile, the Federal Republic of Germany and the Kingdom of the Netherlands have signed the Geneva (1967) Protocol subject to ratification, but will be unable to confirm their signatures by 30 June 1968; and

NOTING that the Governments of Brazil and Chile have nevertheless implemented their obligations under paragraph 2 of the Protocol and that the Governments of the Federal Republic of Germany and the Kingdom of the Netherlands have assured the CONTRACTING PARTIES that their obligations under paragraph 2 of the Protocol will be implemented on 1 July 1968:

The Council of Representatives, acting under the authority conferred upon it by paragraph 5(b) of the Geneva (1967) Protocol,

DECIDE to extend until 31 December 1968 the time-limit for the acceptance of the Geneva (1967) Protocol by the Governments of Brazil, Chile, the Federal Republic of Germany and the Kingdom of the Netherlands.
