The following joint communication dated 26 September 1975 has been received from the Permanent Missions of Japan and New Zealand.

GATT document L/4172/Add.2 dated 23 July 1975, contains a communication from the Governments of New Zealand and of Japan agreeing to an extension of the ninety-day period under GATT Article XIX with respect to consultations on New Zealand's action on certain fabrics.

These consultations, however, will not be concluded prior to the expiration of the agreed extension of ninety days. Therefore, the Governments of New Zealand and of Japan have agreed that their reciprocal rights and obligations under the General Agreement shall be maintained as though the ninety-day period set forth in Article XIX:3 shall begin to run as from the date of the completion of the consultations.
