"These rectifications will become effective on the thirtieth day following the notification given to that effect by the Government of Japan to the Director-General of the CONTRACTING PARTIES upon the completion of internal procedures, or on such earlier date as may be indicated in that notification."

The permanent delegation of Japan has now transmitted to the secretariat the following notification:

"With reference to the Second Certification of Changes to Schedules to the GATT, I have the honour to notify you that the rectifications of Schedule XXXVIII - Japan attached thereto will, pursuant to the provisions of the note to the said rectifications, become effective as from 3 June 1975."
