NORWAY - TEMPORARY AUTOMATIC LICENSING ARRANGEMENT

The following communication, dated 21 August 1975, has been received from the Permanent Mission of Norway.

The Norwegian Government hereby notifies that as from 25 August 1975 a temporary automatic licensing arrangement has been introduced on the importation from all sources of the following textile and garment items:

Tariff heading	Description of goods	Norwegian statistical No.
ex 60.03	Stockings and socks (except ladies' stockings) of other material than wool	60.03.120, -190, -920, -990
ex 61.01 and ex 61.02	Slacks, jeans and trousers (except shorts) of cotton	61.01.550, 61.02.650
ex 61.02	Blouses of cotton or discontinuous man-made fibres	61.02.550, -590
ex 60.04 and ex 61.03	Shirts of cotton or other textile fibres	60.04.120, -150, -190 61.03.120, -151, -159, -191, -199
ex 62.02	Bedwear of cotton or other textile fibres	62.02.121, -126, -152, -153, -155, -156, -162, -163, -165, -166, -192, -193, -195, -196, -197, -199.

The arrangement is introduced as a matter of surveillance only and is not intended to establish any new restraints on the imports of these products. The licences will be issued by the authorities within one week after the applications have been received. The main purpose of the measure is to prevent circumvention of bilateral agreements imposing restrictions on the importation of these products and to give information at an early stage on the development of the importation of same products from other sources.
