PROTOCOL REGARDING CERTAIN CHEESES

Communication from the Australian Permanent Mission

Addendum

The following communication, dated 14 September 1988, has been received from the Australian Permanent Mission.

Sales of below normal export quality cheese under derogation relating to Article 7, paragraph 2

As reported in the responses to questionnaires for the December, March and June quarters, below normal export quality cheese has been sold under derogation by Australia and shipped during 1987 and 1988.

The actual selling price for all product was A$550/tonne.

All of the product has been exported to various European ports for re-processing, mixing, and repackaging prior to re-export. Complete information is not available on final destinations. The product has been sold principally on non-traditional markets, including Eastern European countries. Where the final destination has not been able to be obtained, the country of interim destination is advised (i.e. Spain or Portugal).

The destinations are as follows:

Country	Quantity (tonnes)
Spain[1]	1,700
Portugal[1]	2,000
Tunisia (following processing in Europe)	100
Turkey " " " "	185
Jamaica " " " "	750
Yugoslavia " " " "	215
Israel " " " "	50
Sweden " " " "	100
Austria " " " "	400
Total	5,500

[1]Re-processed in part with product from other sources for re-export; final destinations unable to be obtained.
