INFORMATION CONCERNING CERTIFICATION OF ORIGIN

Addendum

Notification by Peru

In pursuance of Annex A of the Protocol, the delegation of Peru has submitted the notification reproduced hereunder for the information of the participating countries. Accordingly, document CPC/10/Add.9 should be supplemented by the following text.

Certificates of origin for products covered by tariff preferences are issued by the Foreign Trade Institute, in accordance with Article 127, paragraph 3, of the Regulations governing the organization and functions of the Institute, which provides:

"The Export Regulation Department shall have the following functions:...3. Issuance of certificates of origin for products covered by tariff preferences."

The Regulations of the Foreign Trade Institute were published by Resolution No. 045-87/ICE-Presidencia, on 26 February 1987.
