THE OSLO TOLL RING PROJECT

Communication from the United States

Addendum

The United States delegation has informed the Chairman, in a communication dated 26 April 1990, that the United States and Norway have reached a mutually satisfactory solution to the dispute in the matter of the Oslo Toll Ring Project.

"Since a mutually satisfactory solution has been found, the United States hereby withdraws its request for dispute settlement proceedings under the Agreement and formally requests that the dispute settlement proceeding in this matter be terminated".

The solution is recorded in an exchange of letters which is available in the secretariat.
