Note No. 29 (GATT/90)
Ref: TS/140-1.1

9 August 1990
Geneva

I have pleasure in writing in response to your communication of 30 April 1990 on the status of restrictions on textiles products covered by the Arrangement as extended by the Protocol.

In this regard, the authorities of the Department of Industry and Commerce of the Argentine Republic have indicated that at present there are no non-tariff measures affecting the import of the above-mentioned products.

Attached hereto is a copy of the communications received.

Yours faithfully,

Nestor E. Stancanelli
Minister-Counsellor for Economic and Trade Affairs

Memorandum No. 89

From: National Import Directorate

To: National Directorate for Economic and Trade Negotiations

Ref: Memorandum No. 166 from National Directorate for Economic and Trade Negotiations

With reference to the above-mentioned memorandum requesting information on restrictive measures applied by our country in the textile and clothing sector, and on the basis of information furnished by the Tariff Department and the Unfair Trade Practices Department of this National Directorate, we wish to inform you at the present time there are no restrictive measures affecting the import of products within the purview of the Textiles Surveillance Body.
