DIRECTOR-GENERAL ACCEPTS INVITATION TO STAY IN POST UNTIL MID-1993

Mr. Arthur Dunkel, Director-General of GATT, who had wished to leave at the end of his present term of office (31 December 1992), has accepted an invitation to continue until 30 June 1993. The extension was formally decided by the GATT Council this morning after the Chairman of the Contracting Parties, Ambassador Lars Anell, reported that Mr. Dunkel had accepted this proposal.

Mr Dunkel was first appointed in 1980.
