Canadian High Commission

Note No: 5173

The Canadian High Commission presents its compliments to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan and has the honour to convey Canadian authorities wish to refer to discussions between Canadian and Pakistani authorities held in Islamabad on 9 December 1991.

Canadian authorities wish to confirm acceptance by the Government of Canada of the extension of the Memorandum of Understanding for the period 01 January 1992 to 31 December, 1992, as modified in accordance with the following: Annex I will be replaced by the attached revised Annex I. The exception provided for in paragraphs 4 and 5 of the existing Memorandum of Understanding with respect to handloom products described in Annex III shall also apply to traditional folklore handicraft textile products known as "Pakistani items" as defined in the attached Annex VII. Category 6 will now read as "cotton terry towels, washcloths and sets". All other terms and conditions of the existing Memorandum of Understanding will remain unchanged.

The Government of Canada proposes that this note, together with the reply from Pakistani authorities confirming their acceptance give effect to the extension of the Memorandum of Understanding .

The Canadian High Commission avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan the assurances of its highest consideration.

ANNEX VII

1. The exception provided for in paragraphs 4 and 5 of the Memorandum of Understanding in respect of traditional folklore handicraft textile products known as "Pakistan items" will apply to the following products:

Pakistani Folklore Items

"Pakistan items" are those items that are uniquely and historically traditional Pakistani products. They are limited to the products enumerated below:

1. Shisha Embroidered Dress: A dress which is knee length or longer with at least the front area above the waist covered with an overlay. The overlay contains embroidery and mirrors which are attached to the overlay by embroidery. This dress has a partial back opening fastened by hooks, buttons, or snaps, but not by zippers or velcro. The mirrors and embroidery must cover the front area above the waist, however, there are no restraints on other sections being covered by mirrors and embroidery.
2. Kurta: A pullover tunic which is fingertip or knee length with a partial opening in front which may be fastened by hooks, buttons, or snaps, but not zippers or velcro. The tunic may be collarless or have a stand-up collar, but may not have an out-turned shirt-type collar or out-turned shirt-type cuffs. A kurta has no front pockets, but may have side-slit pocket(s), and must have sleeves that are a quarter length or longer. The fabric of the Kurta may be solid coloured, striped, printed, crocheted, embroidered and/or patch-worked with side slits of at least 2 inches on both sides.
3. Gharara: Pants/trousers with a drawstring waist with coloured and/or metallic embroidery work. Each pant leg measures at least 36 inches across the bottom and closes at the ankle by a drawstring. Imported as a set with the Kurta.
4. Multani Choli: A tight fitting collarless top which is waist length or shorter and that has quarter or half length sleeves. The Multani Choli has a full front or back opening fastened by snaps, buttons, or hooks, but not by a zipper or velcro. This top may or may not be embroidered.
5. Burqa: A solid coloured, loose fitting, and untapered gown which is ankle length with a full front opening from neck to ankle, fastened by snaps, buttons, or hooks, but not by a zipper or velcro. A head covering is imported with the Burqa which may or may not be attached to the gown.

6. Boluchi/Peshawari Vest: A sleeveless and loose fitting vest which may close with snaps, buttons, or hooks, but not by a zipper or velcro. The Bolchi/Peshawari vest extends to approximately waist length and is covered by substantial embroidery and mirrors which are at least on the front.
7. Ghagra: An extremely loose fitting, full, ankle length skirt which gathers at the waist by either a drawstring or hooks, but not by a zipper or velcro. The circumference of the skirt at the bottom is at least 5 yards.
8. Batwa: A drawstring pouch or string bag as described below:
 - a. Drawstring Pouch - A small pouch which is more than 7 inches across when laid flat and is covered at least on one side with sequins, metallic string and other decorative material. A drawstring is used to close the opening.
 - b. String Bag - A small bag which is more than 7 inches across and 6 inches in height when laid flat. The bag is covered with embroidery and mirrors at least on the front flap and is held by a twisted yam shoulder strap.
9. Sindi Julaba: A loose fitting, ankle length dress, with or without a partial closure in the front or back fastened by snaps, buttons, or hooks but not by a zipper or velcro. The dress may have side slits or side pockets and must have half length sleeves.
10. Izarband: A non-woven (knot) narrow fabric with two braided ends which results in loose fringe at both ends used as drawstring.
11. Baluchi Kameez: A loose fitting tunic with an opening on one shoulder seem fastened by hooks, buttons, or snaps, but not by a zipper or velcro. The tunic has 3/4 length sleeves or longer and has matching embroidery work at least on the yoke and cuffs. The tunic is always longer than waist length, flares out near the bottom, and does not have side slits.
12. Kaftan: A women's loose fitting pullover full or ankle length garment with partial front or back opening fastened by hooks, buttons, snaps or string but not by a zipper or velcro. The fabric of the kaftan may be solid coloured, striped, printed, crocheted, embroidered and/or patchworked. The kaftan has side slits or a back slit for walking.
13. Ghilaf: a cushion coverer is oblong, square, round or of other shapes, covered with a combination of mirrors, embroidery, and other decorative material.
14. Dupatta: A scarf which is at least two meters or more in length and one meter or more in width. The scarf must be hemmed at both ends and constructed from thin, lightweight fabric.
15. Shalwar: Straight (men) or gathered (women) pants with a drawstring waist and either drawstring leg openings (no elastic) or cuffs. The men's shalwar has less stitching on the button of each leg than the women's shalwar.

16. Pyjama: Men's or women's pants without a waistbar but with a drawstring waist. The pant leg may either be straight or tapered with or without a small side slit. The garment may have pockets but has no front opening.
17. Punjabi Kameez: A loose fitting tunic with an out-turned collar and shirt type cuffs and a partial front opening fastened by hooks, buttons, or snaps, but not by a zipper or velcro. A tunic has side slits at least 2 inches or more on both sides. It has front pockets and side slit pockets. The fabric of Punjabi Kameez is solid coloured, striped, printed, embroidered or patchworked.
