FREE-TRADE AGREEMENTS BETWEEN NORWAY AND ESTONIA, LATVIA AND LITHUANIA

Communication from Norway

The following communication, dated 9 October 1992, has been received from the delegation of Norway.

Referring to Article XXIV of the General Agreement I have the honour to notify that Free-Trade Agreements and the Agreements on Agriculture are provisionally applied between the Kingdom of Norway, on the one hand, and the Republic of Estonia, the Republic of Latvia and the Republic of Lithuania respectively, on the other.

- The Agreements between Norway and Estonia were signed in Tallinn on 15 June 1992 and are being provisionally applied in the respective countries. They will enter into force when the process of ratification has been completed in both countries.
- The Agreements between Norway and Latvia were signed in Riga on 15 June 1992 and are being provisionally applied in the respective countries. They will enter into force when the process of ratification has been completed in both countries.
- The Agreements between Norway and Lithuania were signed in Vilnius in June 1992 and are being provisionally applied in the respective countries. They will enter into force when the process of ratification has been completed in both countries.

The text of the three Agreements are contained in the Addendum to this document.
