GENERALIZED SYSTEM OF PREFERENCES

Notification by Sweden

Addendum

In a communication dated 17 May 1993 the Permanent Mission of Sweden has notified the following changes in the Swedish GSP scheme.

- Uganda, owing to its status as a least developed country, is granted preferential treatment for all its products as from 1 April, 1993.
- The following countries have been added to the list of beneficiaries to the Swedish GSP scheme as from the dates indicated:
 - Croatia as from 1 March 1992;
 - Slovenia as from 1 March 1992;
 - Brunei Darussalam as from 1 January 1993;
 - The Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia as from 1 April 1993;
 - Bosnia-Hercegovina as from 1 April 1993;
- The following countries have been deleted from the list of beneficiaries owing to the fact that the EFTA countries have concluded free trade agreements with them:
 - Turkey as from 1 July;
 - Israel as from 1 April, 1993.
