Memorandum on the Foreign Trade Régime

Addendum

The following communication was received on 7 February 1994 from the Representative of Chinese Taipei.

I have the honour to inform you that my government has provisionally adjusted the import tariff rates for 235 HS tariff lines which are grouped into four categories. Below for your information is a brief description of the tariff rate adjustments of these four categories of products and their respective effective periods.

- (a) Category One: 2 HS tariff lines; including Atlantic Salmon (Salmo salar) and Danube salmon (Hucho hucho), fresh or chilled (HS 0302.12.20) or frozen (HS 0303.22.00). The tariff rate has been reduced from 30% to 25%. Effective period is from 16 June 1993 through 15 June 1994.
- (b) Category Two: 182 HS tariff lines including man-made fibres and man-made fibre yarns, etc. The tariff rate for each line has been increased. Effective period is from 14 October 1993 through 13 October 1994.
- (c) Category Three: 37 HS tariff lines including products such as bean, compressor and stainless, etc. The tariff rate for each tariff line has been duly adjusted. Effective period is from 20 October 1993 through 19 October 1994.
- (d) Category Four: 8 HS tariff lines including sausage made of turkey meat and beef. The tariff rate for each line has been reduced. Effective period is from 1 January 1994 through 31 December 1994.

Complete details of such tariff rate adjustments are reproduced on diskette.

The diskette is available in the Secretariat (Office of the Special Adviser to the Director-General, Room 2017) for consultation by delegations.
