Trade Negotiations Committee

COMMITTEE ON AGRICULTURE

The above Committee, with the terms of reference given below, was established by the Trade Negotiations Committee at its meeting on 27 June 1963.

Terms of reference

The Committee shall consider and submit to the Trade Negotiations Committee recommendations in regard to the rules to govern, and the methods to be employed in, the creation of acceptable conditions of access to world markets for agricultural products in furtherance of a significant development and expansion of world trade in such products.

Membership

As the Committee on Agriculture is not meeting in the immediate future the Trade Negotiations Committee decided to establish the membership of the Committee at a later date.
