I. Trade measures affecting exports

1. Subsidies

Romania does not grant any subsidies within the meaning of Article XVI:1 of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, as already notified to GATT (documents L/5102/Add.2 and L/5449/Add.4).

2. Credit, non-commercial

Except for the usual commercial credits, no other credits are granted on exports.

3. Charges, prohibitions and other restrictions

Romania does not engage in any other forms of aid to agricultural exports, nor are there any charges, prohibitions or other restrictions such as those mentioned in the documentation of the Committee on Trade in Agriculture (AG/W/2).

II. Measures affecting imports

In Romania, agricultural imports are regulated by the customs duty system. Romania applies ad valorem customs duties on all the CCCN headings covering agricultural products. The level of the duty rates is indicated in the International Customs Journal - No. 32 of March 1977 and in the schedules of customs duty reductions and bindings granted by Romania in the context of the Tokyo Round of multilateral trade negotiations which are incorporated in Schedule LXIX - Romania 1979 (Geneva Protocol, 1979 - annex to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade - Volume IV, pages 3031-3036).

2. Levies and other charges

Romania does not apply any levies and other charges at the border, other than the customs duties mentioned in paragraph 1 above.

3. Licensing and import restrictions

The system of licensing and import restrictions applied by Romania in respect of agricultural products has been notified to GATT and reproduced in documents L/5110, IMC/INV/19/Rev.3 and DPC/INV/1/Add.15/Suppl.2.

4. With respect to sanitary and phytosanitary regulations, marketing standards, and packaging and labelling regulations, these are reflected in the notifications made by Romania to the GATT secretariat in documents DPC/INV/1/Add.15/Suppl.2, IMC/INV/19/Rev.3 and TBT/1/Add.21.

5. With respect to State-trading enterprises, these are covered by the Romanian notification in documents L/5104/Add.2 and L/5445/Add.2.
