

GENERAL AGREEMENT ON TARIFFS AND TRADETariff Conference 1960/61Consolidated List of Offers by the Government of the United Kingdom

Her Majesty's Government stated at the opening of the Tariff Conference that they would be ready to exchange important tariff reductions over a wide range of their imports for comparable reductions in tariffs against their exports. In saying this, they had in mind the extent to which the United States administration are currently empowered to negotiate reductions in their tariff and the declared readiness of the E.E.C. to bind reductions of 20 per cent over the whole of the industrial area of the Common Tariff, subject to the possibility of limited exceptions.

2. At the meeting of the Tariff Negotiations Committee on 29th May, 1961, the Leader of the Delegation on the basis of the linear cut of 20 per cent proposed by the European Economic Community, expressed confidence that they were in negotiation fully in a position to match, his Delegation had made concessions to the European Economic Community and the United States over the greater part of their imports. He added that they were ready to embark at once on bilateral discussions with the Delegations of the European Economic Community and the U.S.A. with a view to exploring each other's offers in greater detail.

3. The attached list of tariff headings has been compiled against this background and in the light of these bilateral discussions. It also takes account of all specific requests which have been received from contracting parties for concessions on industrial products. The list shows in consolidated form the concessions which the United Kingdom has made to the European Economic Community and the U.S.A. In terms of United Kingdom trade in 1959 the consolidated offer list represents imports to the value of $461.7m. from the Community and 214.4m. from the U.S.A.

4. It will be seen that, in the great majority of cases, the concession offered is a reduction of the order of 20% in the existing rate. The United Kingdom would be ready to explore the possibility of reducing their tariff by more than 20% in particular cases if the European Economic Community, for their part, were willing to make corresponding reductions.

5. The scale of these offers reflects the United Kingdom's present understanding of the likely scope of the consolidated offers of the European Economic Community and the U.S.A. The United Kingdom Delegation wish to say also that, if the concessions offered by the European Economic Community and the U.S.A. exceed their present expectations, they, for their part, are in a position to add a substantial range of further concessions to the present list, given that many of the existing concessions are of a provisional nature and are thus subject to negotiation. Conversely, if the concessions offered by the European Economic Community and the U.S.A. fall short of those expectations, the United Kingdom Delegation reserve the right to make corresponding adjustments to their own offers. It is, however, the hope of the United Kingdom Delegation that those offers will prove to be a starting point and that in the course of the negotiations a measure of reciprocity will emerge which will enable concessions on all sides to be substantially increased.

6. Apart from the need to achieve a settlement which is fairly balanced as a whole, the United Kingdom will, in respect of certain products (for example, motor vehicles), wish to make their offers conditional on reductions by others on the same product.

7. In judging what they would feel to constitute an acceptable overall bargain, a point of doubt with other contracting parties negotiating with the E.E.C.) will attach importance to the fact that reductions in the Common Tariff which will not be fully in force for some years. The United Kingdom would wish to see the Tariff Conference lead to the quickest possible lowering of tariff barriers on a mutually advantageous basis. It is thus, in their view, most desirable that practical ways and means should be found whereby the Member States of the E.E.C. can anticipate, in their individual tariffs, reductions negotiated in the Common Tariff, so that contracting parties which undertake concessions to the E.E.C. will be able to bring them into effect as quickly as possible on a basis of adequate reciprocity.

GENERAL AGREEMENT ON TARIFFS AND TRADE

Tariff Conference 1960/61

Consolidated List of Offers by the Government of the United Kingdom

Explanatory Note

The following list is expressed in terms of the United Kingdom Customs and Excise Tariff 1961, as amended at 1st April.

2. The items shown on the list are of two kinds:-

- (a) those on which the United Kingdom are prepared to negotiate concessions - against these the extent of the offer (which relates to the goods described in Columns 1 and 2 of the list) is shown; and
- (b) those industrial items which have been the subject of requests but in which the United Kingdom feel unable to make an offer, as stated in the "offers" column.

Agricultural items falling in Chapters 1-24 which have been the subject of requests are not listed.

3. While in a great many cases the concession offered is a reduction of the present rate by exactly 20%, there are particular cases where rates are proposed which, for various reasons, differ from those which would result from a cut of precisely that amount. This has been done, for example, to round off fractional rates or to keep the rate for a particular tariff item in line with that for another related item. There are also some cases where the concession offered is a reduction in only one or other of the elements in a rate of duty containing both specific and ad valorem elements. The United Kingdom Delegation reserve the right to make further similar adjustments in the course of negotiation and also to formulate more precisely at a later stage the Customs definition and scope of particular concessions.

Notes to Chapter 29

Note No.	U.K. tariff item No.	Comment
1	ex 29.01(A)(2)	In the U.S.A. request list "tereno, monomeric" is incorrectly shown under tariff item 29.14 (IJ). The correct classification is ex 01(A)(2).
2	ex 29.04(C)	The EEC request relates to "ethylene glycol". This product is listed in the United Kingdom "Classification of Chemicals in the Brussels Nomenclature" as "ethanediol".
3	ex 29.06(C)	The EEC request relates to "phenylol propane". This product is listed in the United Kingdom "Classification of Chemicals in the Brussels Nomenclature" as "2:2 Di-(p-hydroxyphenyl) propane".
4	ex 29.23(E)	The EEC request list includes the following items:   Requested rate Glycine Aminoacetic acid Binding of exemption 15%   In the U.K. "glycine" and "aminoacetic acid" are two terms for the same product. The meaning of the requests is therefore not wholly understood.
5	ex 29.27(B)	The U.K. is willing to discuss the EEC request on receipt of further information from EEC about the product in question, particularly as regards its uses.
6	ex 29.42(F)	The EEC request relates to "theophylline (including theophylline ethylenediamine)". It is assumed that the words in brackets relate to the product listed in the United Kingdom "Classification of Chemicals in the Brussels Nomenclature" as "aminophyllin".

NOTES:

(1) 32.09

Three requests have been received from USA under heading 32.09, viz

		Present rate	Requested rate
32.09	Pigments and extenders, dry	12%	10%
32.09(B)(4)(b)	Paints, pigments and extenders in paste form	20%	1
32.09	Paints and painters' enamels, ready-mixed	12 $\frac{1}{2}$ %	10%

The first of these requests requires clarification as the scope of the description is not understood and there is no 12% rate under 32.09.

Clarification is also required as to the scope of the description of the second request, particularly as regards pigments and extenders. (U.K. tariff heading 32.09(B)(4)(b) has been re-numbered 32.09(C)(4)(b) in the 1961 U.K. tariff).

It is assumed that the third request relates to products classified under 32.09(C)(1)(b)(ii)

(2) 32.09(C)(4)(b)

The EEC request listed under 32.09(B)(4)(b) - re-numbered 32.09(C)(4)(b) in the 1961 U.K. tariff - does not specify the requested rate

Notes to Chapter 73

The scope of some of the USA requests and of one EEC request that Chapter, is not entirely clear. The requests in question t, shown in the respective request lists as falling in Chapter 73 of the U.K. tariff or believed to fall in re indicated below.

Note No.	Information as shown in USA request 1			t	t full f duty	Requested rate of duty	Comment
	Tariff item No.	Description of Products	Pres rate
1	73.07(B) 73.15(D)(3)	Forzings (including drop forgings) in the rough or machined		7½	14		U.K. tariff sub-headings 73.07 (B) and 73.15 (D)(3) relate only to pieces roughly shaped by forging, of iron or steel, and do not include drop forgings or machined forgings. The majority of drop forgings and machined forgings are machinery parts and would accordingly be classified under the various tariff headings for such parts.
2	73.13	Steel plates, uncoated, other than alloy, 1/8 inch and under 3/16 inch	£6 5 per ton	10	7		Since both the dimensions given in the request are in excess of 3 millimetres, it is assumed that the request relates to goods classified in sub-heading 73.13 (A). The present full rate of duty for 73.13 (A) is £4 15s. per ton or 10%, whichever is the greater.
3	73.13 (A) and (B)	Sheets and plates of iron or steel, coated, other than tinplate: 3 mm or more Under 3 mm	£4 1 . per ton £7 1 . per ton	10 10	7 7		Since the request refers to "coated" sheets and plate, it is assumed that the reference in the request to 73.13 (B) relates to 73.13 (B)(2). The present full rate for the latter sub-heading is £7 5s. per ton or 10%, whichever is the greater.
4	73.12 (F)	Hoop and strip, bright cold rolled, of alloy steel: 3 mm or over Under 3 mm	£4 1 . per ton £7 1 . per ton	10 10	7 7		All hoop and strip of alloy steel is classified in 73.15 (D)(10). The present full rates of duty quoted in the request are not entirely consistent with those set out in U.K. tariff sub-heading 73.15 (D)(10).
5	73.15 (D)(11)(b)	Sheets, black, of alloy steel other than stainless and heat resisting, under 1/8 inch in diameter	£6 5 per ton	10	7		U.K. tariff sub-heading 73.15 (D)(11)(b) relates to sheets and plates of alloy steel and high carbon steel less than 3 millimetres in thickness, whereas the request gives a dimension of "under 1/8 inch" (= 3.1749 millimetres). The difference in dimensions being relatively small, the request is taken to fall entirely within 73.15 (D)(11)(b). Also, since the request refers to "black" sheets, it is taken to be further limited so as to fall entirely within 73.15 (D)(11)(b)(i).
6	Various	Lock washers			16		This request is shown in the U.K. offer list under headings 73.32 (C) and 74.15 (B). The present full rate for 73.32 (C) is 15%.

Tariff item	Description	Present full rate
Various	lockwashers	20%

The request is being regarded as relating to lockwashers of iron, of steel or of copper classified in UK tariff sub-headings 73.32 (C) and 74.15 (B). If lockwashers of other headings are intended to be covered by the request, it would be appreciated if the USA would specify the other headings.

- (2) 74.19 The EEC request relating to "Closps, frames with clasps, buckles and buckle-closps for handbags and travel goods" is incorrectly shown under 74.19. The correct sub-heading is 83.09 (D).

Amendments to Consolidated List of Offers by the Government of the United Kingdom

I the explanatory note to their Consolidated List of Offers, the Government of the United Kingdom reserved the right in the course of the negotiations to make adjustments of these offers, for example, in order to keep the rate for a particular tariff item in line with that for another related item. For reasons of this kind the United Kingdom Delegation now wish to make certain minor adjustments in the List of Offers as shown in the attached schedule of amendments.

It will be seen that the amendments have been divided into increased offers and decreased offers. The former consist of cases where a larger reduction of duty than previously shown is now offered and includes eleven new offers, while the latter consists of cases where a smaller reduction of duty is now offered with two items where offers are now withdrawn.

The new offers and withdrawals, taken together, result in a net increase in the value of offers in terms of the United Kingdom trade in 1959 of 5.9m. to E.E.C. and 30.2m. to U.S.A.

The amendments also include a few cases of changes of tariff descriptions and corrections of typographical errors. Previous corrections were issued in corrigenda dated 14th July, 1961, and 25th July, 1961.

3rd November, 1961

United Kingdom Delegation,
G.A.T.T. Tariff Conference 1960/61,
Geneva.
