
MC12 BUSINESS FORUM

Kubota Masakazu

Kubota Masakazu is Director General of Keidanren since June 2014. He started his career at Keidanren in April 1976 at International Economic Affairs Department. During his carrier at Keidanren for more than forty years, he has held various senior positions in the policy fields such as international economic affairs, economic policy, and industrial policy. From April 1989 to March 1992, he was assigned to Special Assistant at the Japanese Embassy in the United States. He was promoted to Managing Director in May 2006 and Senior Managing Director in May 2009. He attended the Tokyo University (Department of Economics) and studied at Singapore National University.