Activities throughout the day

Guided tours

Visitors will have the opportunity to discover the rich history of the Centre William Rappard and to learn about the people who have played a part in its evolution since its inauguration in 1926. The guided tours will include a visit to the WTO library.

WTO staff will act as tour guides. The tours will take place at 11:00, 13:00 and 15:00. Each tour lasts a minimum of one hour.

Interpreter for a Day Room W

Would you like to find out what it feels like to work as an interpreter at the WTO? Sessions where you can try out your skills will be held in Room W at 12:00, 14:00 and 16:00.

Exhibitions Atrium

An exhibition of photos showing the evolution of the WTO building since its inauguration in 1926 will be on display in the WTO Atrium. Some of the most famous people in the history of the WTO will also be featured along with historic pictures from the signing of the Marrakesh Agreement establishing the WTO. A display on "Ways we gain from trade" will be another feature in the atrium.

10:30

Thank you Award Council Room

As a token of appreciation to the city of Geneva, the Director-General will present an award to a local institution to thank it for its contribution to the work of the WTO.

Children's activities

Numerous activities are planned for our little visitors. These include face painting, storytelling, a bouncy castle, a treasure hunt, and puzzles inspired by the WTO building's artwork.

International buffet

Refreshments and national dishes will be provided by a variety of WTO members throughout the day.

WTO Human Resources

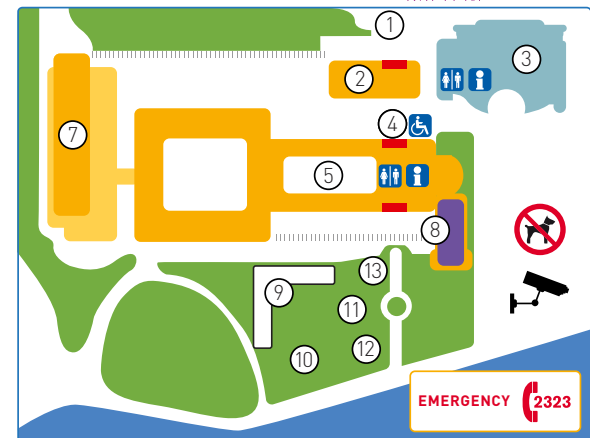

Human resources staff will explain how recruitment is carried out at the WTO.

WTO Cinema

A series of videos on the WTO will be on display throughout the day.

Live music

There will be live music all day.
