The One-Page Case Summaries provides a succinct summary of the key findings of every dispute panel report up to the end of 2011 and, where applicable, the subsequent Appellate Body report. Each one-page summary comprises three sections: the core facts; the key findings contained in the reports; and, where relevant, other matters of particular significance. The disputes are presented in chronological order (by dispute settlement number). Two indexes at the end of the publication list the disputes by WTO agreement and by WTO member responding to the complaint.

The WTO Analytical Index is a comprehensive guide to the interpretation and application of the WTO Agreements by the Appellate Body, dispute settlement panels and other WTO bodies. It contains extracts of key pronouncements and findings from tens of thousands of pages of WTO jurisprudence, including panel reports, Appellate Body reports, Article 21.3(c) awards and Article 22.6 decisions.

This unique work will be of assistance to anyone working in the field of WTO law, including lawyers, economists, academics and students. It is produced by the Legal Affairs Division of the WTO Secretariat with contributions from other divisions of the Secretariat and the Appellate Body Secretariat.

The third edition of the WTO Analytical Index covers developments in WTO law and practice over the period January 1995 to September 2011.

"The WTO Analytical Index is an edited compendium of key materials from the entire work of the WTO as an organization, arranged by topic and set into context by introductory summaries or remarks. Its coverage includes panel and Appellate Body reports, arbitral decisions and awards, and decisions and other significant activities of WTO Committees, Councils and other WTO bodies. The WTO Analytical Index is distinctive because it is the only legal research tool that provides an integrated view of all of the WTO’s work, including the work of the members in these bodies."
