

Blockchain in the Supply Chain Use Cases: Trade Finance

Founding member	we.trade	Marco Polo	Trade Information Network (Project "Wilson")	Voltron	Komgo	Batavia	Trade Information Platform	TradeLens	Global Shipping Business Network
	Manage, track and secure domestic and international trade transactions. Make domestic and cross-border commerce easier for European companies.	Trade and working capital finance solutions. Open account trade finance orchestrations: - Receivable Finance - Factoring - Payment Commitment with and without financing	Create a data exchange between all corporations and their banks for purchase orders (PO) and invoices.	Automating Letters of Credit and trade finance documentation. Legal enforceability of title documents on Corda.	Commodities trading platform.	Closing of trade agreements and execution of smart payments, automatically triggered by specified events in the supply chain.	International trade data sharing platform, particularly letters of credit and insurance documentation.	Sharing of container events between stakeholders involved in transports.	Facilitate the seamless sharing of documents and data across all stages of the shipping lifecycle, including dangerous goods documents, invoices, and cargo release.
Technology Platform	Hyperledger Fabric	Corda	CGI (non bch)	Corda and Bolero	Consensys on Ethereum	Hyperledger Fabric	NTT Data	IBM and Maersk	Oracle
Participating Banks	12	11	7	12	9	5	3	0	0
Participating non-Banks	0	1	0	1	6	0	10	2	9
ABN AMRO					1
Anglo-Gulf Trade Bank		1
ANZ			1
Banco Santander	1		1
Bangkok Bank		1		1
Bank of Montreal						1
BBVA				1
BNP Paribas		1	1	1	1
CaixaBank	1					1
Citi			1		1
CMA CGM									1
Commerzbank		1				1
Cosco									1
Crédit Agricole Group					1
CTBC Holding				1
Danske Bank		1
Deutsche Bank	1		1
DNB		1
DP World									1
Erste Group	1					1
Evergreen Marine									1
Gunvor					1
HSBC	1		1	1
Hutchinson Ports									1
ING		1		1	1				