

LAW ON STANDARDIZATION

I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Subject-matter of the Law

Article 1

This Law shall govern the principles and objectives of standardization in Montenegro, the establishment, organization and activities of the organization for standardization of Montenegro, the adoption, issuing, and application of Montenegrin standards and related documents in the standardization area, as well as inspectoral supervision of the implementation of this Law.

Definitions

Article 2

The terms used in this Law shall have the following meanings:

- 1) Standardization shall mean activities aimed at defining provisions for general and multiple use, related to actual or potential problems, for the purpose of achieving the optimum level of orderliness in a given area;
- 2) Standard shall mean a document established by consensus and adopted by a recognized body, which provides, for common and repeated use, rules, guidelines or characteristics for the activities or the results thereof, for the purpose of achieving optimal level of regulation in a certain area. Standard may also contain or exclusively relate to terminology, symbols, requirements in respect of packaging or marking if they apply to a product, production method or processing;
- 3) International standard shall mean a standard adopted by an international organization (international body) for standardization that is available to the public;
- 4) European standard shall mean a standard adopted by European organizations for standardization that is available to the public;
- 5) Montenegrin standard shall mean a standard adopted by the organization for standardization of Montenegro that is available to the public;
- 6) A related document in the area of standardization (hereinafter referred to as: related document) shall mean a document adopted by the organization for standardization that is available to the public, but does not meet the requirements to be adopted as a Montenegrin standard;
- 7) Adoption of a standard or a related document shall mean the set of coordinated activities beginning with the approval of a proposal for adopting the standard or the related document, and ending with the adoption of an act on its promulgation;
- 8) Interested party shall mean any company, other legal person, entrepreneur, or natural person that is interested in standardization;

- 9) Consensus shall mean a general agreement on any important issue achieved in such a way as to take into account the views of all the interested parties and to harmonize all the conflicting views, however consensus shall not mean unanimity;
- 10) Conformity assessment shall mean any procedure used, directly or indirectly, to determine that relevant requirements in standards are fulfilled;
- 11) Mark of conformity shall mean a mark or an indication affixed to a product in accordance with the rules of the organization for standardization of Montenegro, demonstrating its conformity with the requirements of a standard;
- 12) International organizations for standardization shall mean organizations for standardization which allow the membership of the relevant national bodies of any country, including the following:
 - International Organization for Standardization (ISO);
 - International Electro-technical Commission (IEC);

- 13) European organizations for standardization shall mean organizations for standardization in which it is possible for relevant national bodies from European countries to become members, including the following:
 - European Committee for Standardization (CEN);
 - European Committee for Electro-technical Standardization (CENELEC);
 - European Telecommunication Standards Institute (ETSI);

II. PRINCIPLES AND OBJECTIVES OF STANDARDIZATION

Principles Article 3

Standardization in Montenegro shall be based on the following principles:

- 1) the right to voluntary participation and contribution of all interested parties in the process of adopting Montenegrin standards and related documents;
- 2) consensus of interested parties;
- 3) prevention of domination of individual interests over the common interest of the interested parties;
- 4) transparency of the standardization procedure and the availability to the public of Montenegrin standards and related documents;
- 5) mutual conformity of Montenegrin standards and related documents;
- 6) taking into account the stage of development of technology and rules of international and European organizations for standardization and relevant international agreements;
- 7) that the product or service from a country that is a signatory to a relevant international agreement is accorded the identical treatment as that accorded to the similar domestic product or service, and/or to the similar product or service from any other country;

- 8) ensuring that standards are not prepared, adopted or applied with a view to, or with the effect of, creating unnecessary obstacles to international trade;
- 9) use of international standards or their relevant parts, when they exist or their completion is imminent, as the basis for Montenegrin standards;
- 10) where appropriate, the use in standards of performance rather than design or descriptive characteristics.

Objectives Article 4

The objectives of standardization shall be:

- 1) The promotion of protection of human, animal and plant life, health and safety, and of the environment;
- 2) The promotion of quality of products, processes and services, determining their purpose, unification, compatibility and commutability;
- 3) The provision of an uniform technical basis;
- 4) The development and promotion of production and trade in goods, performing construction works, or providing services through development of internationally harmonized standards and related documents aimed at the rational use of labor, materials and energy;
