

Pursuant to Article 88 Item 2 of the Constitution of the Republic of Montenegro I hereby pass the

DECREE PROMULGATING THE LAW ON TAX ON PROFIT OF LEGAL ENTITIES
(Official Gazette of the Republic of Montenegro No 65/01 of 31 December 2001, 12/02 of 15 March 2002, 80/04 of 29 December 2004; Official Gazette of Montenegro No 40/08 of 27 June 2008, 86/09 of 25 December 2009)

I hereby promulgate the Law on Tax on Profit of Legal Entities, adopted by the Parliament of the Republic of Montenegro at the second sitting of the second regular session in 2001 on 27 December 2001.

Number: 01-3872/2

Podgorica, 28 December 2001

The President of the Republic of Montenegro

Milo Đukanović, m.p.

LAW ON TAX ON PROFIT OF LEGAL ENTITIES
(LAW ON CORPORATE PROFIT TAX)

I GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1

- (1) This Law governs the system and introduces the obligation of payment of a tax on profit of legal entities (hereinafter referred to as the Profit Tax).
- (2) The revenues from the Profit Tax shall belong to the Budget of Montenegro.

II TAXPAYER

Article 2

- (1) A taxpayer of the Profit Tax shall be a resident or non-resident legal entity, which carries out a for-profit activity.
- (2) For the purpose of this Law, a limited partnership shall also be considered as a legal entity.

Resident and Non-resident

Article 3

- (1) A resident legal entity (hereinafter referred to as the resident) shall be an entity established in Montenegro, or having registered office having actual headquarters and control on the territory of Montenegro.

- (2) A non-resident legal entity (hereinafter referred to as the non-resident) shall be an entity that is not established in Montenegro, and without registered office having actual headquarters and control in Montenegro, but that carries out its operations through a permanent establishment.

III OBJECT OF TAXATION

Article 4

- (1) The object of taxation of a resident shall be the profit that the resident realizes in Montenegro and outside of Montenegro.
- (2) The object of taxation of a non-resident shall be the profit that the non-resident realizes in Montenegro.
- (3) The object of taxation of the non-resident's permanent establishment (hereinafter referred to as the permanent establishment) shall be the profit attributable to such establishment.
- (4) The permanent establishment shall mean a permanent place of operations through which a legal entity entirely or partly carries out its operations and is organized in one of the following forms: a headquarters, a branch, an office, a factory, a workshop, a mine, oil or gas deposit, a quarry or any other place of exploitation of natural resources. A construction site or a prefabricated structure shall constitute a permanent establishment only if it continues to exist for the period exceeding six months.
- (5) The permanent establishment referred to in paragraph 4 of this Article shall not imply to be the following:
- 1) use of structures for storage, display or delivery of goods belonging to the legal entity;
 - 2) keeping of stock of goods belonging to the legal entity for the purpose of storage, display or delivery;
 - 3) keeping of stock of goods belonging to the legal entity for processing by another legal entity;
 - 4) maintenance of a permanent business location for procurement of goods or collection of information for the legal entity;
 - 5) maintenance of a permanent business location for operations of the legal entity and any other activity of preparatory and auxiliary character;
 - 6) maintenance of a permanent business location for any purpose mentioned in items 1 to 4 of this paragraph provided that the overall activities of the permanent business location arising from this purpose are of preparatory and auxiliary character.
- (6) The object of taxation of the non-resident without the permanent establishment shall be the revenues referred to in Article 29, paragraph 1, item 2 of this Law.

Sources of Profit

Article 5

- (1) The revenues realized from following grounds shall be considered as sources of profit in Montenegro:
- 1) sale of goods produced in Montenegro;

- 2) provision of services in Montenegro;
 - 3) interest, if debited to the resident or the non-residents through its permanent establishment in Montenegro;

Article 12

Costs of material and acquisition value of sold merchandise shall be recognized in the amounts calculated by applying average cost method or FIFO method, in accordance with the law governing accounting.

Article 13

- (1) Depreciation of permanent fixed assets and investments in immovable property shall be recognized as an expense in the amount determined in the manner envisaged under this Law.
- (2) Permanent fixed assets referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall cover tangible and intangible assets with a life exceeding one year and having the value exceeding 300 euro.

(3) Fixed assets referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article shall be classified in five groups with the following depreciation rates:

- group I 5%
- group II 15%
- group III 20 %
- group IV 25 %
- group V 30%

(4) Depreciation of permanent fixed assets classified in the Group I shall be calculated according to the straight-line method for each asset individually.

(5) Depreciation of fixed assets classified in the remaining groups (II – V) shall be calculated according to declining-balance method on the value of assets classified by groups.

(6) The ministry competent for finance shall adopt a more detailed regulation on classification of fixed assets by groups and methods for determining the depreciation.

Article 14

Expenses incurred for healthcare, education, scientific, religious, cultural, sports, and humanitarian purposes, as well as for environmental protection shall be recognized as expenses in the amount not exceeding 3.5% of the total revenue.

Article 15

Business entertainment expenses shall be recognized as expenses in the amount up to 1% of the total revenue provided that: they are incurred for improvement of business operations, they are documented, and their recipient is not a related party.

- (5) Provisioning referred to in this Article shall be recognized in such manner that revenues are excluded and expenses recognized, thus the revenues and expenses used to increase and decrease the tax base in the past are not included in the tax base again.

Article 19

Interest and appurtenant costs due to a creditor with the status of a related party shall be recognized as an expense in the amount not exceeding interest costs in the open market, if such costs do not exceed the actually paid amount.

Article 20

The difference between interest calculated on the arm's length basis and the amount of interest actually received shall be included in the tax base of the recipient of such interest.

Capital Gains and Losses

Article 21

Capital gain shall be considered to be the revenue that a taxpayer realizes through sale or other transfer with compensation (hereinafter referred to as the sale) of land, building constructions, property rights, equity interests and securities.

Article 22

- (1) Capital gain shall represent the difference between the sale price of the asset referred to in Article 21 of this Law (hereinafter referred as the asset) and its acquisition price adjusted in the manner envisaged under this Law.
- (2) Negative difference referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be considered as a capital loss.

- (3) If participants in the sale of assets are related parties and if the sale price is lower than the market value, then the competent tax authority shall make the adjustment of the market value.
- (4) Capital losses may be offset against capital gains realized in the same year.
- (5) If even upon the offset against capital gains realized in the same year, the capital loss still occurs, the taxpayer may carry forward the capital loss against future capital gains in the next five years.

Article 23

For the purpose of determining the capital gain, the sale price of the asset shall be considered to be the market value of the asset received as monetary or non-monetary compensation reduced by the costs of sale or costs of other transfer of the asset.

Article 24

For the purpose of determining the capital gain, the purchase price of the asset shall be the price at which the taxpayer acquired the asset or the estimated fair value of the asset, determined in accordance with regulations governing accounting and reduced by depreciation costs established in the manner envisaged under this Law.

Tax Treatment of Operating Losses

Article 25

- (1) Losses resulting from business relations, excluding those resulting in capital gains and losses may be transferred forward against profit generated in future assessment periods, but not exceeding five years.
- (2) The tax benefits referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall also apply in the case of status changes.
- (3) In the case of status changes, the tax benefits referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be proportionally divided based on the value of the assets, and the competent tax authority shall be informed thereof.

VI TAX TREATMENT OF STATUS CHANGES AND LIQUIDATION

Status Changes

Article 26

- (1) Transfer of assets in a case of status change (acquisition, merger or division) and distribution of the share capital shall not be considered as the sale of assets for the purpose of this Law.
- (2) Tax liability arising from capital gains referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall occur at the time when a legal entity, created as a result of the status change, sells the assets taken over resulting from the status change.

- (3) Capital gain referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article shall be calculated as a difference between the sale price of the asset and its bookkeeping value, established in accordance with the accounting regulations, reduced by depreciation costs established in a manner envisaged by this Law.
- (4) Right to defer payment of the Profit Tax on capital gains realized in the manner referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be acquired in a case the owner of the legal entity which transferred the assets in the event of acquisition, merger, or division received a compensation in a form of shares or interest in the legal entity to which the assets were transferred, as well as in the case of possible cash compensation the amount of which does not exceed 10% of the par value of acquired shares or interest.

Liquidation of a Legal Entity Article 27

- (1) A legal entity shall be obliged to, in case of a liquidation of the legal entity, determine a capital gain or loss as if it had sold the assets at market price.
- (2) The acquisition price of distributed assets in the liquidation procedure, for the purposes of determining the capital gain, shall equal the market value of the assets prior to the distribution thereof.
- (3) The capital gain or capital loss shall be determined in the manner envisaged in Article 22 of this Law.
- (4) In the case when the assets of a subsidiary are transferred to a parent company, the parent company shall not be obliged to determine capital gain or loss.

VII TAX RATES

The Profit Tax Rates Article 28

The rate of the Profit Tax shall be proportional and amount to 9% of the tax base.

Withholding Tax Rates Article 29

- (1) A taxpayer of the Profit Tax shall be obliged to calculate, withhold and pay withholding tax on payments made on the following bases:
 - 1) dividends and interests in profits paid to resident and non-resident legal entities and natural persons;
 - 2) interest, royalties, and other intellectual property rights compensations, capital gain, movable and immovable assets lease fees, revenues from provision of consulting services, market research services and audit services paid to a non-resident legal entity.
- (2) The withholding tax shall be paid at the rate of 9% to a base made of the gross revenue.

- (3) Withholding tax shall be calculated and paid in accordance with regulations applicable at the time of the payment of revenues.
- (4) Withholding tax shall also be paid by an establishment of a non-resident legal entity at the time of payment of compensation referred to in paragraph 1, item 2 of this Article.
- (5) Notwithstanding provisions of paragraph 4 of this Article, withholding tax shall not be paid in case the compensation is attributed as revenue of the establishment of a non-resident legal entity.

Article 29a

- (1) When calculating the withholding tax for revenues paid to a non-resident legal entity, a payer of revenues shall apply provisions of an agreement for avoiding double taxation, provided that the non-resident proves the resident status in the country with which Montenegro has concluded the agreement for avoiding double taxation and that the non-resident is the real owner of revenues.
- (2) Non-resident shall prove the status of a resident of the country with which the agreement for avoiding double taxation was concluded, for the purpose of paragraph 1 of this Article, to the payer of the revenues by a certificate or other appropriate document, certified by a competent authority of other country party to the agreement the entity is the resident of.
- (3) If the payer of revenues applies provisions of the agreement for avoiding double taxation and the requirements referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article are not met, which as consequence results in a less paid amount of taxes, it shall be obliged to pay the difference of paid tax and tax due under this Law.
- (4) The tax authority shall be obliged to issue a certificate on tax paid in Montenegro upon the request of a non-resident legal entity.
- (5) Obligor of a withholding tax shall be obliged to submit to the competent tax authority a report on paid withholding tax, which shall be submitted until the end of February of the current year for the previous year.
- (6) The ministry competent for finance shall prescribe the form and content of the report referred to in the paragraph 5 of this Article.
- (7) The tax authority shall notify a foreign tax authority, upon its request, on assessed withholding tax for a non-resident legal entity.
