

FEDERAL LAW
NO. 147-FZ OF AUGUST 17, 1995
ON THE NATURAL MONOPOLIES
(with the Amendments and Additions of August 8, 2001)

Adopted by the State Duma on July 19, 1995

Chapter I. General Provisions	(Articles 1-5)
Chapter II. State Regulation and Control in the Spheres of Natural Monopoly	(Articles 6-8)
Chapter III. Organs Regulating Natural Monopolies, Their Functions and Powers	(Articles 9-14)
Chapter IV. Responsibility for Breaking the Pre-sent Federal Law	(Articles 15-20)
Chapter V. Procedure for the Adoption of Decisions (Orders) by Organs Regulating Natural Monopolies, and also Procedure for the Execution of, and Appeal against, These Decisions	(Articles 21-25)
Chapter VI. Concluding Provisions	(Articles 26-27)

Chapter I. General Provisions

Article 1. The Purposes of the Federal Law

The present Federal Law defines the legal principles of the federal policy vis-a-vis the natural monopolies in the Russian Federation, and is aimed at reaching a balance of interests between the consumers and subjects of the natural monopolies, which ensures access for consumers to the goods sold, and ensures the effective functioning of the subjects of the natural monopolies.

Article 2. The Sphere of Application for This Federal Law

The present Law shall extend to the relations which arise in the commodity markets of the Russian Federation and in which the subjects of the natural monopolies, consumers, federal executive bodies, executive bodies of the subjects of the Russian Federation, and local self-government bodies take part.

The regulation of the activity of the subjects of the natural monopolies, provided for by this Federal Law, may not be applied in the spheres of activity that do not relate to the natural monopolies, except for in cases stipulated by federal laws.

Article 3. Definitions of the Basic Concepts

The following definitions of the basic concepts shall be applied for purposes of this Federal Law:

a natural monopoly is the state of a commodity market in which the satisfaction of the demand on this market is more effective in the absence of competition, due to the specific technological aspects of production (in connection with the substantial decrease in the production costs per unit of goods to the extent of growing volume of output), whereas goods produced by the subjects of a natural monopoly cannot be replaced by consumption of other goods in connection with which the demand on the given commodity market for goods produced by the subject of the natural monopolies depends to a lesser degree on changes of prices for these goods than on the demand for other goods;

the subject of a natural monopoly is a transactor unit (legal entity) engaged in the production (sale) of goods in the conditions of the natural monopoly;

the consumer is a natural person or legal entity, buying goods produced (sold) by the subject of a natural monopoly; the manager of the subject of a natural monopoly (other transactor unit) is a person authorized to act without a power a attorney on behalf of the subject of a natural monopoly (other transactor unit).

The concept "goods", "a commodity market", "transactor units", and "a group of persons" shall be applied according to the meanings referred to in Article 4 of the RSFSR Law on Competition and the Restriction of Monopolistic Activity in Commodity Markets.

Article 4. The Spheres of Activity of the Natural Monopolies

The present Federal Law regulates the activity of the subjects the natural monopolies in the following spheres:

- the transportation of oil and oil products along the main pipelines;
- the transportation of gas along pipelines;
- the transfer of electric and heat power;

On the Peculiarities of the Insolvency (Bankruptcy) of Fuel and Power Natural Monopoly Entities see the Federal Law No. 122-FZ of June 24, 1999

- transportation by rail;
- the services of transport terminals, sea and river ports, and airports;
- the services of generally accessible electric and postal communication services.

Article 5. Organs Regulating the Activity of the Subjects of Natural Monopolies

1. Federal executive bodies regulating natural monopolies (hereinafter referred to as the organs regulating natural monopolies) shall be set up to regulate and control the activity of the subjects of natural monopolies, in the order established for the federal executive bodies.

2. To exercise their powers, the organs regulating natural monopolies shall have the right to set up their territorial bodies and to invest them with powers within their jurisdiction.

The Decree of the President of the Russian Federation No. 220 of February 28, 1995 provides for the establishment of organs regulating natural monopolies

Chapter II. State Regulation and Control in the Spheres of Natural Monopoly

Article 6. Methods of Regulating the Activity of the Subjects of Natural Monopolies

The organs regulating natural monopolies may apply the following methods of regulating the activity of the subjects of natural monopolies (hereinafter referred to as the methods of regulation):
price regulation through the setting (fixation) the maximum level for prices (tariffs);

Concerning the state regulation of prices (tariffs) of products (services) of natural monopolies see:

- Decision of the Government of the Russian Federation No. 715 of October 11, 2001
- Decision of the Government of the Russian Federation No. 1158 of October 13, 1999
- Decree of the President of the Russian Federation No. 1451 of October 17, 1996
- Decision of the Government of the Russian Federation No. 869 of July 17, 1996
- Decision of the Government of the Russian Federation No. 863 of July 17, 1996
- Decision of the Government of the Russian Federation No. 997 of October 13, 1995
- Decision of the Government of the Russian Federation No. 140 of February 12, 1996

the definition of consumers subject to obligatory service and/or the fixation of a minimum level of their supply, if it is impossible to fully satisfy the needs in goods produced (sold) by the subject of natural monopoly in order to protect the rights and lawful interests of individuals, to safeguard the security of the State, and to protect natural and cultural valuables.

Federal Law No. 126-FZ of August 8, 2001 supplemented Article 6 of this Federal Law with part 2:

The amendments shall come into force a month after the official publication of the mentioned Federal Law

When oil exportation off the customs territory of the Russian Federation is concerned the right of access to the Russian main pipeline and sea terminal system shall be granted to oil-producing organisations registered in the established manner and also to organisations being parent companies in respect of oil-producing organisations in proportion to the volume of produced oil which has been delivered to the main pipeline system, given a 100-per cent main pipeline capacity (based on the pipelines' technical specifications).

Article 7. State Control in the Spheres of Natural Monopoly

1. In order to carry on an effective state policy in the spheres of the activity of the subjects of natural monopolies, the organs regulating natural monopolies shall exercise control over the actions which are performed with the participation of natural monopolies or in respect of their subjects or which can result in the infringement of the interests of consumers of goods, regulated in keeping with the present Federal Law or subject to the restraint of the economically justified transition of the corresponding commodity market from the state of natural monopoly to that of a competitive market.

2. The organs regulating natural monopolies shall exercise control over: any transactions, as a result of which a subject of natural monopoly acquires the right of ownership of fixed assets or the right of using fixed assets, not intended for production (sale) of goods, regulated in accordance with the present Federal Law, if the book value of such fixed assets exceeds 10 per cent of the value of the ownership capital of the subject of natural monopoly according to the latest approved balance-sheet;

the investments of a subject of natural monopoly in production (sale) of goods, which are not regulated in keeping with the present Federal Law and which do not comprise more than 10 per cent of the value of the ownership capital of a subject of natural monopoly according to the latest approved balance-sheet;

the sale, lease, or any other transaction, as a result of which the transactor unit acquires the right of ownership or possession and/or use of the part of the fixed assets of the subject of natural monopoly, intended for the production (sale) of goods, regulated in conformity with the present Federal Law, if the book value of such fixed assets of a natural monopoly accords with the latest approved balance-sheet.

3. To perform the actions referred to in Item 2 of this Article, the subject of a natural monopoly shall be obliged to submit to the corresponding organ regulating the natural monopoly, its application for permission to perform such actions, and to supply information needed for the adoption of a decision.

See the Rules for considering petitions from natural monopolies' subjects by the Federal Energy Commission of the Russian Federation, approved by Decision of the Federal Energy Commission of the Russian Federation No. 54/3 of October 6, 2000

Requirements for the content of such information and the form of its presentation, and also the procedure for considering the request, shall be determined by the rules approved by the corresponding organ regulating the natural monopoly.

The organ a regulating a natural monopoly shall have the right to refuse the request, if the actions declared in it can lead to the negative consequences referred to in Item 1 of this Article, and also in cases where the applicant has not submitted all the necessary documents, or if examination of the documents leads to questions as to their that their information of veracity.

Within 30 days of the receipt of the request, the organ regulating a natural monopoly shall inform the applicant in writing about the decision on its consent or refusal. The refusal must have grounds.

If additional information is needed for the adoption of a decision, then the organ regulating the natural monopoly shall have the right to require it from the applicant and to increase the period for considering the request by 30 days, provided that such inquiry, together with the notification about the prolongation of the period of considering the request, has been sent to the applicant within 15 days of its receipt.

If within 15 days from the day of the expiration of the period of considering the request, the reply of the organ regulating a natural monopoly is not received, or if the satisfaction of the request is refused on grounds which the applicant deems to be unlawful, then the applicant shall have the right to apply to a court of law for the protection of its rights.

4. A person or a group of persons, who as a result of acquiring on the market, shares in the authorized (pooled) capital of the subject of a natural monopoly or as a result of other transactions (including contracts of agency, trust management, and pledge), acquires over 10 per cent of the total number of voting shares comprising the authorized (pooled) capital of the subject of a natural monopoly, shall be obliged to notify about this, and also about all cases of changing the number of votes belonging to them, the respective organ regulating the natural monopoly, within 30 days from the time of the acquisition. The same duty shall be borne by the subject of a natural monopoly that acquires a transactor unit that presents to it more than 10 per cent of the total number of votes of all the shares.

To exercise control over the observance of the requirements provided for by this item, the organ regulating a natural monopoly shall have the right to request from economic societies and partnerships, information about their partners who possess over 10 per cent of the total number of votes.

Article 8. The Duties of the Subjects of Natural Monopolies

1. The subjects of natural monopolies shall have no right to refuse to conclude contracts with particular consumers for the production (sale) of goods which are regulated in keeping with the present Federal Law, provided that the subject of a natural monopoly has the possibility of producing (selling) such goods.

2. The subjects of natural monopolies shall be obliged to submit the following documents to the respective organ regulating the natural monopoly:

current reports on their activities, in the order and in the time-limits fixed by the organ regulating the natural monopoly; draft of plans for capital investments.

Chapter III. Organs Regulating Natural Monopolies, Their Functions and Powers

Article 9. Organs Regulating Natural Monopolies

1. Organs regulating natural monopolies shall be set up in the spheres of activity referred to in Article 4 of the present Federal Law.

Decree of the President of the Russian Federation No. 276 of February 26, 1996 established the Federal Service of the Russian Federation for Regulation of Natural Monopolies in Transportation

Decree of the President of the Russian Federation No. 96 of January 25, 1996 established the Federal Service of the Russian Federation for Regulating the Natural Monopolies in the Sphere of Communication

Decree of the President of the Russian Federation No. 1194 of November 29, 1995 formed the Federal Energy Commission of the Russian Federation regulating the transportation of oil and oil products, gas through main pipelines, services in the transfer of electric and thermal energy

2. General guidance of the federal executive body regulating a natural monopoly shall be exercised by its head. The head shall be appointed to his post and released from it by the President of the Russian Federation, upon the proposal of the Chairman of the Government of the Russian Federation. The head of the organ regulating a natural monopoly shall also be a member of the board of this body.

3. A board consisting of not more than seven numbers, including the head, chosen from among highly skilled specialists with experience in their respective fields, shall be set up to determine the main directions of the activity of the federal executive body in the sphere of regulating the natural monopoly, and to adopt relevant decisions. The board members shall be appointed by the Government of the Russian Federation for a term of not less than four years. To sustain continuity in the board's work, every year, beginning with the fifth year of this body's work, one-third of the total number of the board members shall be replaced.

4. The legal status of a civil servant shall extend to the employees of the organs regulating natural monopolies.

5. The federal executive body regulating a natural monopoly shall be liquidated, if there is a possibility of developing competition in the relevant commodity market, and/or in case of a change in the demand for the goods of subjects of the natural monopolies.

Article 10. The Functions of the Organs Regulating Natural Monopolies

The organs regulating natural monopolies shall discharge the following basic functions:

form and keep the register of the subjects of natural monopolies regulated and controlled by the State;

See the Regulations of the Register of natural monopolies' subjects on transport, approved by Order of the Ministry of Anti-Monopoly Policy and Support to Business of the Russian Federation No. 777 of November 30, 2000 determine regulatory methods, provided for by the Federal Law with reference to the concrete subject of the natural monopoly;

control the observance of the requirements of this Federal Law within their jurisdiction;

table in the statutory manner proposals on the improvement of legislation on natural monopolies.

Article 11. The Powers of the Organs Regulating Natural Monopolies

The organs regulating natural monopolies shall have the right:

to adopt decisions, obligatory for the subjects of natural monopolies, on the introduction, modification and cessation of regulation and on the application of methods of regulation, stipulated by this Federal Law, including on the fixation of prices (tariffs);

to adopt decisions on the facts of breaking this Federal Law in accordance with their jurisdiction; to forward obligatory orders on the cessation of breaches of this Federal Law to the subjects of natural monopolies, including orders on the removal of their consequences, on the conclusion of contracts with consumers, subject to compulsory servicing, on the introduction of amendments to the concluded contracts and on the remittance to the federal budget of profit, received by them as a result of the actions violating the present Federal Law;

to take decisions on the inclusion in the register of the subjects of natural monopolies or on the exclusion from it;

to send to the executive bodies and the local self-government bodies obligatory orders on the repeal or modification of the acts adopted by them as inconsistent with this Federal Law and/or on the cessation of breaches of this Federal Law;

to take decisions on the imposition of fines on a subject of natural monopoly; to bring to administrative responsibility in the form of a warning or a fine the heads of the subjects of natural monopolies, the officials of the executive bodies and the local self-government bodies in cases, provided for by this Federal Law;

to apply to a court of law with a claim, and also to take part in the examination by the court of cases, associated with the application or infringement of this Federal Law;

to exercise other powers set by federal laws.

Article 12. Grounds for Taking Decisions on the Application of Regulation Methods by Organs Regulating Natural Monopolies

1. The organ regulating a natural monopoly shall take a decision on the application of regulation methods, provided by this Federal Law and other federal laws with reference to a concrete subject of natural monopoly, on the basis of the analysis of its activity, with due account of its stimulating role in improving the quality of produced (sold) goods and in satisfying the demand for them. It shall assess the justification of expenses and take into consideration:

costs of production (sale) of goods, including wages and salaries, the cost of raw and auxiliary materials and overhead expenses;

taxes and other payments;

the cost of fixed production assets, the requirements for investments needed for their reproduction and depreciation deductions;

predictable profit from the possible sale of goods at different prices (tariffs);

the remoteness of various groups of consumers from the place of production of goods;

the compliance of the quality of produced (salable) goods with the demand of consumers; government subsidies and other measures of state support.

2. While taking a decision on the application of measures regulating the activity at a concrete subject of natural monopoly, the organ regulating the natural monopoly shall be obliged to examine information, submitted by interested persons about the activity of this subject of natural monopoly.

Article 13. The Right of Access to Information about the Activity of Subjects of Natural Monopolies

1. In order to discharge the functions of the organs regulating natural monopolies, their employees shall have the right to the unhindered access to the information on the activity of subjects of natural monopolies, available for the executive bodies and the local self government bodies, and also for the subjects of natural monopolies.

2. On the demand of the bodies regulating natural monopolies the subjects of these monopolies, the executive bodies and the local self-government bodies shall be obliged to submit reliable documents, explanations in written and oral form and other information, needed for the discharge by the organs regulating natural monopolies of the functions, envisaged by the present Federal Law.

3. Information which makes up a commercial secret and has been received by the organ regulating a natural monopoly on the basis of this Article shall not be subject to disclosure.

Article 14. Information Provision by Organs Regulating Natural Monopolies about Adopted Decisions

1. The organs regulating natural monopolies shall be obliged to notify the public through mass media about the adopted decisions on the introduction, change or termination of the regulated of the activity of the subjects of natural monopolies, and also on the inclusion into a register of subjects of natural monopolies or on their exclusion from it, on the used methods of regulating the activity of the subjects of natural monopolies and on the specific indicators and requirements made to them by the organs regulating the natural monopolies.

Every year the natural monopolies regulation bodies shall publish reports on their activity.

2. The natural monopolies regulation bodies shall be obliged to notify the public through mass media about all the cases of applying the responsibility for breaking the present Federal Law.

3. Announcements about the liquidation of the natural monopolies regulation bodies and about the grounds for the adoption of such decision shall be published in mass media.

Chapter IV. Responsibility for Breaking the Present Federal Law

Article 15. Consequences of Breaking the Present Federal Law

1. In cases of breaches of this Federal Law the subjects of natural monopolies (their heads), the executive and local self-government bodies (their officials) shall be obliged to take the following measures in accordance with the decisions (orders) of the natural monopolies regulation bodies:

- to stop breaches of this Federal law and/or remove their consequences;
- to restore the original position or perform other actions, indicated in the decision (order);
- to cancel or modify the act that is inconsistent with the present Federal Law;
- to conclude a contract with the consumer subject to obligatory servicing;

- to introduce amendments to the contract concluded with the consumer;
- to pay a fine;
- to compensate for the losses caused.

2. The subject of a natural monopoly shall be obliged to remit to the federal budget the profit, received by it as a result of breaking the present Federal law in the period, fixed by the decision of the respective organ regulating the natural monopoly.

3. Fines subject to payment by decision of the natural monopoly regulation body shall be remitted to the federal budget within the period, fixed by this decision.

Article 16. Grounds for the Imposition of Fines on the Subjects of Natural Monopolies for Breaking the Present Federal Law

The subjects of natural monopolies shall bear responsibility in the form of fines for the following breaches of the law:

the overstatement of prices (tariffs), fixed by the organ regulating a natural monopoly, - in the amount of up to 15,000 minimum wages or salaries;

the non-execution of the decision (order), issued by the organ regulating the natural monopoly in keeping with Article 11 of the present Federal Law, - in the amount of up to 10,000 minimum wages or salaries;

the submission of unreliable information to the organ regulating the natural monopoly - in the amount of up to 1,000 minimum wages or salaries;

the non-submission to the organ regulating the natural monopoly of the notification, provided for by Item 4 of Article 7 of this Federal law, - in the amount of up to 600 minimum wages or salaries;

the non-submission on time by the demand of the organ regulating the natural monopoly of documents or other information, needed for the performance of its activity, - in the amount of up to 500 minimum wages or salaries.

Article 17. The Compensation by the Subject of a Natural Monopoly of the Losses Caused by the Breach of the Present Federal Law

If the actions (inaction) of the subject of a natural monopoly that contravene the present Federal Law have caused losses, including by understating prices (tariffs), to another transactor unit, these losses shall be liable to compensation by the subject of the natural monopoly in conformity with civil legislation.

Article 18. The Responsibility of the Head of the Subjects of Natural Monopolies, the Officials of the Executive and Local Self-government Bodies for Breaches of the Present Federal Law

The heads of the subjects of natural monopolies, the officials of the executive and local self-government bodies shall bear administrative responsibility for:

the non-execution on time of the decision (order) of the respective organ regulating the natural monopoly in the form of a warning or a fine in the amount of up to 50 minimum wages or salaries;

the non-submission of documents and other information, requested by the natural monopoly regulation body, or the submission of obviously unreliable information in the form of a warning or a fine in the amount of up to eight minimum wages or salaries.

Article 19. The Responsibility of the Officials of the Natural Monopolies Regulation Bodies for Breaking the Present Federal Law

The officials of the natural monopolies regulation bodies shall bear administrative responsibility for breaking this Federal Law, including for the disclosure of information making up a commercial secret, in the form of a fine in the amount of up to 50 minimum wages or salaries.

Article 20. The Compensation of Losses Caused to the Subject of a Natural Monopoly or Other Transactor Unit by the Unlawful Decisions and Actions (Inaction) of the Natural Monopoly Regulation Body

If the natural monopoly regulation body has taken a decision with the contravention of this Federal Law, including that on the fixation of prices (tariffs) without sufficient economic justification and as a result of this has inflicted losses to the subject of the natural monopoly or other transactor unit, they shall have the right to demand the compensation for these losses in the order, prescribed by the civil legislation.

Chapter V. Procedure for the Adoption of Decisions (Orders) by Organs Regulating Natural Monopolies, and also Procedure for the Execution of, and Appeal against, These Decisions

Article 21. Procedure for the Adoption by the Natural Monopolies Regulation Organs of Decisions of the Introduction, Modification or Termination of the Regulation of the Activity of Subjects of Natural Monopolies

1. Decision on all the questions concerning the introduction, modification or termination of the regulation of the activity of the subjects of natural monopolies, and also the application of regulation methods, provided for by the present Federal Law, shall be taken by the majority of the votes of the board members of the corresponding body regulating the natural monopoly.

Questions dealing with the introduction, modification or termination of the activity of the subject of a natural monopoly may be considered on the basis of the proposals made by the federal executive bodies, the executive bodies of the subjects of the Russian Federation and the local self-government bodies, the voluntary organizations of consumers, their associations and unions, and transactor units.

The natural monopoly regulation body shall take a decision on the matters concerning the introduction, modification or termination of the regulation of the activity of the subjects of natural monopoly, and also the application of the regulation methods, provided for by the present Federal Law, being guided by the materials of the analysis carried out on the grounds, provided for by Article 12 of this Federal Law. An independent economic expert examination may be carried out by decision of the regulation body.

The representative of the subject of a natural monopoly shall have the right to be present during the consideration by the relevant natural monopoly regulation body of the questions concerning the introduction, modification or termination of the regulation of the activity of the given subject of the natural monopoly. The subject of the natural monopoly regulation body well in advance.

2. Decisions on the introduction, modification or termination of regulation or on the refusal to accept the tabled proposal shall be taken by the board of the corresponding natural monopoly regulation body within six months since the day of the receipt of the proposal. In this case, the refusal or the partial refusal to accept the tables proposal shall be motivated.

See the Forms for Decisions and Directions on Violations of the Federal Law on Natural Monopolies, approved by Order of the Ministry of Anti-Monopoly Policy and Support to Business of the Russian Federation No. 963a of August 24, 2001

Article 22. Grounds for the Consideration by the Natural Monopolies
Regulation Bodies of Cases of Breaking the Present Federal Law

1. The natural monopolies regulation bodies shall have the right to consider cases of breaking this Federal Law and to take decisions on them within their jurisdiction.

2. The applications of transactor units, consumer, voluntary organizations of consumers, their associations and unions and the representations of executive and local self-government bodies, and procurator's offices shall be used as the grounds for the examination of cases in question.

3. The natural monopolies regulation bodies shall have the right to consider cases at their own initiative on the basis of reports of mass media and of other materials at their disposal that testify to breaches of this Federal Law.

Article 23. Procedure for the Consideration by the Natural Monopolies Regulation Bodies of Cases of Breaching the Present Federal Law and Taking Decisions on Them

1. Procedure for the consideration by the natural monopolies regulation bodies of cases of Breaching This Federal Law shall be determined by the government of the Russian Federation.

2. Decisions taken by the natural monopolies regulation bodies according to the results of considering cases shall be forwarded to the interested persons in writing within 10 days since the day of their adoption. Orders issued in the basis of adopted decisions shall be sent to the interested persons within the same period.

3. Decisions on the cases of violations of this Federal Law which affect public interests shall be published in mass media within one month since the day of their adoption.

Article 24. Procedure for the Execution of Decision (Orders) of the Natural Monopolies Regulation Bodies

1. Decisions (orders) of the natural monopolies regulation bodies shall be implemented by the subjects of natural monopolies (by their heads), the executive bodies, the local self-government bodies (their officials) in the period, provided for by the decisions (orders) within 30 days since the day of their reception.

2. In case of the non-execution by executive bodies or local self-government bodies of decisions (orders) on the repeal or on the alteration of the acts, taken in violation of this Federal Law or on the restoration of the original situation, the natural monopolies regulation bodies shall have the right to apply to court of law and claim for the recognition of these acts ad invalid (in full or in part) and/or for the enforcement to restore the position that existed before the breach of the present Federal Law.

3. In case of default by the subject of a natural monopoly of the order to conclude a contract of to introduce amendments to the contract the natural monopoly regulation body shall have the right to lodge a claim in a court of law for obliging the subject of the natural monopoly to conclude a contract or to introduce amendments in the concluded contract.

4. In case of the non-fulfilment by the subjects of natural monopolies of the order to remit to the federal budget the profit, received as a result of the breach of the present Federal Law, the natural monopolies regulation bodies shall have the right to bring an action in a court of law for the recovery of the groundlessly received profit.

5. In case of the evasion by the subjects of natural monopolies, the heads of these subjects or the officials of executive and local self-government bodies from the payment of a fine or in case of the payment of a fine in a less amount than that indicated in decisions (orders), the natural monopolies regulation bodies shall have the right to lodge a claim in a court of law the recovery of the fine.

Article 25. Procedure for Appealing Against Decisions (Orders) of the Natural Monopolies Regulation Bodies

1. The subjects of natural monopolies (their heads), the executive bodies and the local self-government bodies (their officials), consumers, the voluntary organizations of consumers, their associations and unions, the procurator shall have the right to apply to a court of law with the application on the recognition as invalid in full or in part of the decisions (orders) of the natural monopolies regulation bodies in case of their inconsistency with the present Federal Law.

2. The filing of an application with a court of law shall stay the execution of the decision (order) of the natural monopoly regulation body for the time of its consideration in the court before the court's decision enters into legal force.

Chapter VI. Concluding Provisions

Article 26. Conditions for the Formation of Federal Executive Bodies for the Regulation of Natural Monopolies

Federal executive bodies for the regulation of natural monopolies shall be formed within the limits of the expenses, provided for by the budget for the maintenance of the state apparatus.

Article 27. On the Enforcement of the Present Federal Law

1. The present Federal Law shall be carried into effect since the day of its official publication.

2. The President of the Russian Federation shall be proposed and the Government of the Russian Federation shall be entrusted to bring their normative legal acts into conformity with the present Federal Law during six months since the day of its official publication.

The Government of the Russian Federation shall be instructed to submit in the statutory manner to the State Duma of the Federal Assembly of the Russian Federation its proposals on bringing the laws of the Russian Federation into conformity with the present Federal Law.

President of the Russian Federation
Moscow, the Kremlin

Boris Yeltsin