- (2) Subject to this regulation, the annual leave entitlement is taken each year by mutual arrangement between employer and worker but the employer shall ensure that a worker engaged by him under a contract of continuous employment or under a contract for a fixed term which lasts for a year or more, takes a minimum period of 14 consecutive days' leave in a year, unless the worker has, under the mutual arrangement, agreed to accumulate his leave entitlement.
- (3) Leave not taken in a year may be accumulated.
- ** (4) Whe and in ar that

- Where it is mutually agreed between an employer and a worker, the leave entitlement of the worker in any year may be converted into cash payable in that year.
- (5) Under a contract for a fixed term or under a contract for employment on an outer island, the whole of the leave earned and not taken may be converted into cash upon termination of the contract.
- (6) A part-time worker is entitled to leave under sub-regulation (1) in the proportion which the number of hours worked by him bears to the number of hours which a full time worker in the same occupation would have worked.
- (7) A casual worker who has worked for the same employer for 5 consecutive days is entitled in respect of every such 5 days to half of his day's pay in lieu of leave.
- (8) (a) Subject to paragraph (b), the following formula shall apply for the purpose of converting accumulated leave into cash:

- (a) during the period of the training programme, an allowance equal to 2/3 of the worker's salary; and
- (b) on successful completion of the training programme, an allowance, in respect of the period of the training programme, equal to 1/3 of the worker's salary.
- * (4) Notwithstanding sub-regulation (3), the employer may, in its absolute discretion and for reason which it deems to be exceptional, pay to a worker who is attending a full-time training programme referred to in sub-regulation (3) an allowance equal to the worker's salary during the period of the training programme.
  - (5) Payment of the allowance referred to in sub-regulations (3) and (4) shall be conditional on the worker complying with any agreement entered into between the worker and the employer relating to the training programme.
  - (6) A worker who applies to his employer for leave under sub-regulation (1) and is refused, may initiate the grievance procedure.
  - (7) Where education leave extends to a period beyond 12 consecutive months, the provisions relating to annual leave shall not apply to the worker during that period.
- 12. (1) Subject to this regulation, a worker, other than a casual Sick Leave or part-time worker, is entitled to sick leave in any period of 12 months as follows
  - (a) an aggregate maximum of 30 days' paid sick leave;
  - (b) when a worker is required by a medical practitioner to be confined to a hospital or similar institution if –

- (i) the worker has not exhausted his 30 days' paid sick leave referred to in paragraph (a), and
- (ii) the worker is confined at the hospital or similar institution or at home for a continuous period which extends beyond the unexhausted part the 30 days' paid sick leave the worker shall be entitled to a further maximum 30 days' paid sick leave during that continuous period;

- (c) an aggregate maximum of 60 days' unpaid sick leave after the exhaustion of paid sick leave under this regulation.
- (2) Entitlement to sick leave under sub-regulation (1) arises where
  - (a) a medical certificate of unfitness for work or confinement, as the case may be, is produced;
  - (b) in the case of sub-regulation 1 (a) or (c), a worker's child under 12 years of age is medically certified sick and a medical practitioner or official authorised by the Minister of Health recommends that the worker attends the child;
  - (c) in the case of sub-regulation 1 (a) or (c), a worker's dependent other than a child under 12 years of age is medically certified sick and a social worker certifies that the sick person requires the attendance of the worker.
- (3) Where a worker is under a contract for fixed term and the duration of the contract is of less than 12 months, the eligibility to sick leave under sub-regulation (1) is of a number of days bearing the same proportion to the term of the contract as the periods of sick leave referred to in sub regulation (1) bear to 12 months, but in any case ends upon the date of expiry of the contract.
- (4) Where following the full period of paid sick leave, a medical practitioner certifies that the worker will not recover and be fit for work, the contract is deemed to be frustrated.

- (5) Where a worker for reasons attributable to sickness fails to report for work after a full period of unpaid sick leave, the contract is deemed to be frustrated.
- (6) Where a worker for reasons not attributable to sickness fails to report for work after the full period of unpaid sick leave, the contract is deemed to have been terminated by the worker.
- * Whenever a worker is, for reasons attributable to sickness, unable to report for work, the worker shall so inform the employer within 24 hours if practicable, or as soon as possible thereafter.
- 13. (1) Where a medical certificate is produced to the effect that a worker is unfit for the particular duties for which he was engaged but may perform alternative duties and no alternative duties are available, the worker is entitled to sick leave under regulation 12.
  - (2) Where, consequent upon the production of a certificate under sub-regulation (1), alternative duties are available, the worker shall be temporarily redeployed to those duties but the wages for his normal duties are maintained.
  - (3) Where a worker temporarily redeployed under sub-regulation (2) is still unfit for his previous duties after 60 days, he may, subject to section 49 of the Act, be permanently redeployed to his new duties in which case the terms and conditions attaching to the new duties shall apply.
  - (4) Where a permanent redeployment pursuant to sub-regulation
    (3) is not available, the worker shall, subject to regulation
    12 (3) be entitled to 60 days unpaid sick leave unless a medical certificate is produced under regulation 12 (4) in which case the contract of employment is deemed to be frustrated.
- 14. A part-time worker is entitled to paid sick leave when he absent himself on grounds of sickness and produces a medical certificate or certificate of confinement, as the case may be, but such entitlement is limited to a number of working days' absence which bears the same proportion to the period of paid sick leave referred to in regulation 12 (1) as the number of days worked by the part-time worker in a week bears to 5 days.
