

TRADE FOR PEACE WEEK

15 November – 19 November 2021

KRIS BOUDT

PROFESSOR OF FINANCE AND ECONOMETRICS AND CO-FOUNDER OF SENTIMETRICS

Kris Boudt is professor of finance and econometrics at UGent and Vrije Universiteit Brussel and Amsterdam. He is a co-founder of Sentometrics, a leading university spin-off that tracks financial and ESG concerns by monitoring continuous flows of textual data using an award-winning technology.

The main research focus of Kris Boudt is the measurement and management of all types of risk. His research has been published in top journals in the field such as the Journal of Econometrics, Journal of Portfolio Management, Journal of Risk, and Review of Finance. He has received several awards for outstanding research.

He loves to combine theory and practice. He has been an expert consultant for UN organizations, financial institutions, policy makers and regulators, among others.
