

TRADE FOR PEACE WEEK

15 November – 19 November 2021

DILSHOD AKBAROV

MANAGER, REGIONAL AID FOR TRADE IN CENTRAL ASIA, UNITED NATIONS DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME (UNDP)

Dilshod Akbarov is a trade policy and development expert and has over 14 years of professional experience at UNDP and GIZ funded trade/value chains development and trade facilitation projects as well as extensive experience working in the public sector. His current position based in UNDP's Istanbul Regional Hub is the project manager of UNDP's Regional 'Aid for Trade in Central Asia (Phase-IV)' project, focusing on supporting inclusive and sustainable economic growth in three countries of Central Asia (Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan, Uzbekistan) through the promotion of green productive capacities and value chains and increasing competitiveness. Prior to joining UNDP in 2014, he worked at GIZ as the National Coordinator of "Support to Regional Economic Cooperation in Central Asia" Programme, where he concentrated on trade policy strategies for enhancing export competitiveness and trade facilitation, as well as work in various positions at the Ministry for Foreign Trade and the Cabinet of Ministers of Uzbekistan, dealing with trade policy analysis and implementation of bilateral and multilateral trade agreements.

Dilshod holds MA in International Economic Relations from Tashkent State Economics University (Uzbekistan), and BS degree from Pennsylvania State University (USA).
