

TRADE FOR PEACE WEEK

15 November – 19 November 2021

H.E. MR. TUDOR ULIANOVSKI

FORMER MINISTER OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS, REPUBLIC OF MOLDOVA

Ambassador Tudor Ulianoschi is the former Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Moldova, the former Ambassador of Moldova to the United Nations and WTO in Geneva, to Switzerland and Liechtenstein, and a recent candidate for the Director-General of WTO. He previously served as the President of the Trade and Development Board of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD), Vice President of World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO), Chair of the Steering Committee on Trade Capacity and Standards at the United Nations Economic Commission for Europe (UNECE) and Chair of the Balance of Payments Committee at the WTO. A distinguished diplomat, with postings in Washington, Doha and Geneva, Ambassador Ulianoschi is currently a Senior Vice President at Grasshopper Energy, where he is focused on renewable, clean, and sustainable energy promotion and storage.
