

12th WTO MINISTERIAL CONFERENCE
GENEVA 2022

CO-HOSTED BY KAZAKHSTAN

MC12
GENEVA
2022

12th WTO Ministerial Conference
12 - 15 June 2022

Programme of Side Events

Date, time and Location	Event	Organiser(s)	Place
12 June, 10h00	Press conference: Fisheries Subsidies Experts Discuss What's at Stake Hear from seven experts from around the world—hailing from Asia, to Latin America, to Europe, to the U.S.—as they discuss why it's critical that ministers take action this week and what's at stake for marine life, the ocean, and the humans who depend on it.	The Pew Charitable Trusts (Pew) Friends of Ocean Action	Hybrid event In person at Geneva Press Club Chem. de l'Impératrice 18, 1292 Pregny-Chambésy More information available here.
13 – 15 June	Trade and Sustainability Hub 2022 The International Institute for Sustainable Development's second Trade and Sustainability Hub will reconvene its community of stakeholders alongside MC12 to discuss how trade policy can contribute to sustainable development. This 3-day event, hosted in partnership with CUTS International, Geneva and the Friedrich-Ebert-Stiftung, will consist of an opening plenary followed by three thematic round tables focused on some of the most pressing trade issues in the runup to MC12 and beyond. All sessions will be accessible online and opportunities to meet, network, and view the roundtables live will be offered at International Environment House 2 in Geneva.	International Institute for Sustainable Development (IISD)	Virtual event More information available here.