

Capacity building programme on Trade in Services and Investment Liberalization Negotiations: National University of Singapore
27-30 March 2012

Michael Ewing-Chow, Head of CIL's Trade and Investment Law & Policy Programme, and Adjunct Senior Research Fellow Geraldine Fischer were invited by UNESCAP, the Thai Department of Trade Negotiations, the International Institute for Trade and Development and the WTO, as expert trainers on Investment and Services negotiations. The "Capacity building programme on Trade in Services and Investment Liberalization Negotiations" was held in Bangkok from 27-30 March 2012. 50 Thai officials and officials from the CLMV countries also participated in this programme.