

THE GLOBAL PLASTIC ACTION PARTNERSHIP – LESSONS LEARNED

Virtual - 14h45-16h15 CET

18 NOVEMBER 2020

This event is being organized in the context of "Trade and Environment Week 2020". It will be held on Zoom.

Hosted by the Government of the United Kingdom in collaboration with the Global Plastic Action Partnership, a multi-stakeholder platform within the World Economic Forum, this virtual panel discussion will demonstrate the role of private-public partnerships in driving positive outcomes on plastic waste. The session will illustrate the value of collective action to address the plastic pollution challenge, highlighting the role of trade as a mechanism to facilitate a circular economy for plastics. Join the conversation to learn more about the Global Plastic Action Partnership's achievements and lessons learned at both the global and national levels.

Keynote Speaker:

Lord Goldsmith, Minister of State (Minister for Pacific and the Environment), United Kingdom

Panel:

- Kristin Hughes, Director, Global Plastic Action Partnership, World Economic Forum
- Oliver Boachie, Special Advisor to Minister, Ministry of Environment, Science, Technology and Innovation (MESTI), Ghana
- Dorcas Ansah, Ghana country representative, Women in Informal Employment: Globalizing and Organizing (WIEGO)
- Maggie Buggie, Chief Business Officer, SAP Services

Moderator: H.E. Julian Braithwaite, Ambassador and Permanent Representative of the United Kingdom to the WTO, UN and other international organizations.

This event is organized by: United Kingdom (in collaboration with the Global Plastic Action Partnership)

The event will be held on Zoom.