HOW WE DELIVER AID FOR TRADE

- Responsibility of Australian Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade

- Bilateral and regional programs

- Donations to Enhanced Integrated Framework

- Demand-driven and responsive to requests received from LDCs in our region

- In 2020, support provided to LDCs in the Pacific, South Asia and South East Asia across the banking and financial, communications, energy, business, transport, tourism and agriculture-related sectors
SUPPORTING DIGITAL TRADE

- E-Commerce Aid for Trade Fund (commenced 2019)

- Includes support for Laos PDR, Cambodia, the Solomon Islands, Kiribati and Tuvalu

- Progress on:
  - Access to e-payments and platforms
  - Affordability of/access to digital solutions and finance
  - E-commerce skills
  - Regulatory environment and government/private sector coordination
  - Gender inclusion and equality
SUPPORTING TOURISM EXPORTS

− Digital Tourism Program (commenced 2019)

− Includes support for the Solomon Islands, Kiribati and Tuvalu

− AUD 13 million in tourism sales generated in 2019
