

Covid-19 Vaccine Supply Chain and Regulatory Transparency Technical Symposium

Elsie Soto

Vice President Supply Chain,
Emerging Markets, Pfizer

Elsie initiated her career in Warner Lambert, Puerto Rico in 1993 as a Junior Pharmaceutical Technologist. For the next 12 years, Elsie assumed positions of increased responsibility including Manufacturing Project Manager, Product Transfers Manager, Production Planning and Inventory Control Manager and Procurement Manager.

In 2005, Elsie began a four-year assignment in Pfizer Spain as Director of South Europe Market Logistics, responsible for local market distribution activities in Spain, Portugal, Greece, Italy and Russia.

In 2009 she was named Director of Global Strategic Business Alliance and moved back to NJ. In this role, Elsie was responsible for supporting Worldwide Biopharmaceutical and Animal Health business development projects from the logistics and supply perspective.

In 2011, Elsie started an international assignment in South Korea as Global Logistics and Supply Market Lead, managing Demand and Supply Planning as well as Logistics in the market. In 2012 she assumed the role of Senior Director, Supply Chain Excellence based in Hong Kong where she was responsible for customs compliance, transportation and market transformation activities for APAC as well as Logistics and Supply operations in Korea and Indonesia.

Elsie was honored in 2011 with a National Hispanics Corporate Achievers Award for her career accomplishments as a corporate leader at Pfizer.

In May 2013, Elsie was appointed Vice President Product Portfolio Management (Pfizer Global Supply Division). Elsie brings 20 years of site and center experience in the areas of Procurement, Transfers, New Products, Site Production Planning, Supply Chain Management, Logistics, PGS Market Leadership, and Business Development to this role.

