

Covid-19 Vaccine Supply Chain and Regulatory Transparency Technical Symposium

Rajinder Kumar Suri

Developing Countries Vaccine Manufacturers' Network

Rajinder Kumar Suri is C.E.O. DCVMN (Developing Countries Vaccine Manufacturers' Network)

Before this he was donning the hat of Chief Executive-Biologicals, Panacea Biotec Ltd. a leading Indian Company engaged in development, manufacturing and marketing of Vaccines and pharmaceuticals worldwide including UN agencies.

Rajinder has over 40 years of rich experience in Pharmaceuticals & Biological products in India & International markets out of which over 24 years' experience at the top management level including four years on the Board of Directors of the Indian subsidiary of Sanofi Pasteur. The remaining 19 years being with Pharma out of which 16 years with Lupin, one of top 10 Indian Pharma Companies.

Rajinder has been Member-Policy & Planning Committee (PPC), an advisory body to GAVI Board, representing DCVMN from October 2013 till June 2017, as also a Member of GAVI Steering Committee for Supply & Procurement Strategy. He has played a lead role in negotiations & interactions with Ministry of Health, Government of India, UN agencies and other Global organizations including but not limited to WHO, UNICEF, Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, Clinton Health Access Initiative & several others.

Rajinder is a former Member Executive Committee & Vice-President, DCVMN for a period of two years from Oct.2014-Oct.2016.

