

Covid-19 Vaccine Supply Chain and Regulatory Transparency Technical Symposium

Wang Hongyi

President, International Business, CanSino Biologis Inc.

Mr. Wang Hongyi, graduated from Chinese Foreign Affairs College, majoring in French Diplomacy, EMBA. He is an excellent entrepreneur in Tianjin, China. He previously served as general manager and senior executive of Tasly pharmaceutical Group, HNA Group. He has nearly 20 years of rich experience in company management and international business.

He has led the prospection of pharmaceutical products in the international market, organized the establishment of overseas branches, successfully organized a number of major foreign affairs and international marketing activities. He participated in the realization of a number of investment projects of foreign companies in domestic pharmaceutical industries. Now, as the head of Cansino International department, he is responsible for the import-export business of the company.

